CHAOTIC DISSENSION PREVAILS IN RUSSIA AS PURGE PROCEEDS

Bewilderment Caused by Hundreds of Arrests and Striking of Thousands From Communist Ranks
—President of White Russian Republic Suicides—Conspiracy Charged

MOSCOW, June 16 (AP).—The suicide of the President of the White Russian Soviet Republic, hundreds of arrests and the removal of hundreds of thousands from Communist party rolls were announced by the Government today as the greatest political purge in Soviet Russia's history went forward.

The Government said, Alexander G. Chervakov, forty-five-year-old head of the westernmost of the Soviet Union's eleven republics, killed himself for family reasons. But his death followed closely his denunciation in a Communist party meeting, the arrest of forty-five of his colleagues for treason, and the execution of the former commander of the White Russian garrison.

THOUSANDS DENOUNCED
The continued denunciation of thousands of men, including many who have stood near the top of the state and party organization, gave the Soviet Union the appearance of being engaged in a gigantic nationwide Salem witch hunt.

Foreign observers still were bewildered by the storm of charges and the scope and ruthlessness of the purge. No foreigner believed Continued on Page 17, Column 7

OFFICERS SEEK HIDDEN GRAVE

Search for Woman Believed Kidnapped in New York Takes Sudden Turn

STONY BROOK, N.Y., June 16 (AP).—Police Lieutenant Stacey Wilson said tonight authorities were seeking a hidden grave within 2,000 feet of the home of the missing Mrs. Alice Parsons.

The search was halted by darkness, but men armed with shovels and other equipment were ordered to begin a new hunt of the brush-covered area north of the Parsons' home at daybreak.

Wilson's announcement followed discovery of local authorities had been engaged in digging at nightfall. Assistant District Attorney Lindsay Henry, who earlier denied a possible grave was sought in the hunt for Mrs. Parsons, admitted more than ten "bare spots" had been examined.

SCORES VISIT SCENE
The report of the digging drew scores of cars to the Parsons' home. William H. Parsons, weary husband of the missing woman, came out, inquired the cause of the excitement and refused to discuss its portent.

Another flurry in the case came tonight with a report communication with a kidnapper had been established by Parsons, who was only awaiting assurance of his wife's safe return before turning over $25,000 ransom. Federal agents and Assistant District Attorney Lindsay Henry said they knew of no such contact.

Appeal Court Frees Couple In Vancouver

VANCOUVER, June 16 (AP).—Fred Hogarth, fifty, former railway brakeman of Saskatoon, Sask., and his forty-seven-year-old wife, Elizabeth, were freed today when Court of Appeal quashed an assize court conviction of manslaughter imposed last fall.

With William Woodcock, sixty-three, now serving a two years and six months' sentence in New Westminster Penitentiary, the Hogarths were alleged to have caused the death of Michael Thomas Sheridan, sixty-three, Princeton, B.C., miner, last November 16, by putting "knockout drops" in the whisky he was drinking. Hogarth was sentenced to two years and six months, and Mrs. Hogarth to two years.

Resting Amid Terrors of Destruction

Bilbao Seized by Terror As Shells Wreck Homes And Thousands Flee City

Screams of Wounded Citizens Rise From Wreckage On Every Side

INSURGENTS MOP UP TO THE VERY GATES

HENDAYE, Franco-Spanish Frontier, June 16 (AP).—A bitter aerial and artillery attack terrorized Bilbao today, many were buried beneath shell-wrecked homes and thousands of women and children fled the city, in panic.

Dispatches reaching the border from Bilbao said whole houses were destroyed by twelve-inch shells from insurgent artillery. It was believed they were fired from German-made guns. It was almost impossible to walk through the streets without hearing the screams of wounded inhabitants buried beneath the wreckage, said refugees reaching here.

Insurgent war planes droned over the city to drop bombs and warning leaflets to the frightened inhabitants. They said only "death awaits you," (Signed) Franco.

COUNTER-ATTACK FAILS

Basque artillery and planes launched a fierce counter-attack, but this was beaten back, the insurgent radio station at Durango reported. The Government station at Santander announced four of Generalissimo Franco's planes were shot down while they swooped over the besieged city.

Those who fled here said the insurgents had not yet crossed the Nervion River and had not reached the suburb of Begona, capture of which the Franco army claimed yesterday. There was an unconfirmed report that the invading army had occupied the Firestone tire factory outside Bilbao.

Canada Approaching Desired Goal of Prosperity States Banker

SAINT JOHN, N.B., June 16 (AP).—S. H. Logan, president of the Canadian Bank of Commerce, said today that "general business activity in Canada has increased by about 15 per cent over the early part of 1936." Nearing the end of a tour of the Maritime Provinces and Newfoundland, Mr. Logan said with such a marked gain for this year business activity as a whole was about 75 per cent above the depression low in February, 1933, and within 15 per cent of the pre-depression high in 1929. "Canada, therefore, has traveled a great distance along the road of economic improvement and may safely be said to be approaching the desired goal of prosperity," he said.

TRUCK DRAGGED BY STREET CAR

Esquimalt Garbage Vehicle Struck While Turning Into Lane

An Esquimalt garbage truck driven on Esquimalt Road in the 1100 block by Fred Pick shortly after 3 o'clock yesterday afternoon was struck by a street car in charge of Wilfred Turner and dragged 160 feet, according to Chief H. W. V. Pecknold. The truck sustained damage to the rear portion of the body and tires, and the front of the street car was badly damaged. No one was hurt.

Chief Pecknold stated that the truck was turning into a private lane off the 1100 block on Esquimalt Road when the east bound street car struck it in the rear. The line supplying air to the brakes got out of order and the truck was dragged 160 feet before Turner managed to halt the street car.

Heavy damage was sustained to the front portion of the street car. Truck damage was confined to the body and tires. Neither Pick, who was driving the truck, nor E. Williams and G. Hall, assistants, was injured. Measurements were taken by Chief Pecknold and Constable Gilbert Stancombe.

PHOENIX, Ariz., June 16 (AP).—For ten years, a Mexican laborer carefully preserved a certificate which, although unable to read it, he believed was proof he entered the United States legally. Immigration officers took him into custody today. Proudly he displayed his paper. Officers said it was a police department booking slip given him in 1927 when he was arrested for petty larceny.

Air Service To Bermuda Is Started

NEW YORK, June 16 (AP).—Dropping from a cloudless sky to the waters of Manhattans Bay, Long Island, Imperial Airways' flying boat Cavalier today completed the first regular passenger- and mail flight between New York and Bermuda.

Taking off from Darrell's Island air base, Bermuda, at 6:30 a.m. (P.S.T.), the four-engine ship flew the 73 miles in five hours thirty-five minutes, despite a sightseeing detour over Manhattan and Brooklyn.

COLLECTIONS IN CHURCH BANNED

Can Only Be Made in Germany for Purposes Government Approves

BERLIN, June 16 (AP).—The Nazi regime struck a new blow today against the Confessional Synod, long an opponent of Nazi domination of Protestant Church affairs, by prohibiting special church collections without Government permission.

The decree, if strictly enforced, deprives the synod of means by which it has been possible to maintain theological seminaries in defiance of state-appointed church authorities and to carry on the work of the synod.

MUST BE APPROVED

Under the order issued by Wilhelm Frick, Minister of the Interior, and Hans Kerrl, head of the Nazi-created Department of Church Affairs, individual churches are prohibited from taking any collections except those approved in a general plan for the year's work of each church.

Often in the past special services have been held for arrested pastors and collections turned over to their families.

Rev. Gerhard Jacobi, pastor of the fashionable Kaiser Wilhelm Memorial Church; Rev. Mr. Niesel and Rev. Von Armin-Lustow have been held for trial in people's court. They are charged with having violated Frick's decree forbidding reading from the pulpit the names of members who have left the church.

Fraser Absolved by Court in Hearing of Hedley Mine Charges

Charge Against Former Foreman Ordered Withdrawn—Engineer Confesses to Signing Report Not Prepared in Whole by Himself

VANCOUVER, June 16 (AP).—A charge of conspiracy against Jack Fraser, former mine foreman at Hedley Amalgamated Gold Mines, in the British Columbia Southern Interior, was ordered withdrawn by Magistrate H. S. Wood in police court today.

The magistrate made his order at the close of preliminary hearing on conspiracy charges of Fraser, Russell E. Barker, ex-president and managing director of Hedley, and William Cox, former mine superintendent. Barker and Cox were remanded to June 24 to allow counsel to prepare defence arguments.

President Roosevelt Urged to Intervene at Johnstown, Pa.—Millions of Dollars in Wages Already Lost and Reign of Terror Alleged—Outbreaks Feared As City Patrolled

Outbreaks of Violence Cause Uneasiness in Many Centres

JOHNSTOWN, Pa., June 16 (AP).—Violence in which two pickets were stabbed broke temporary quiet at the strike-bound Cambria Works of Bethlehem Steel tonight as President Roosevelt received an appeal from Mayor Daniel J. Shields to intervene.

The Cambria Works has been strike-bound since Saturday over refusal of Bethlehem to sign work contracts. Elsewhere on the long steel strike line in the nation there were restless stirrings over "back-to-work" movements.

An estimated 100,000 men are idle over refusal of the four big independent steel companies—Republic Steel Corporation, Youngstown Sheet & Tube Company, Bethlehem Steel Corporation and Inland Steel—to sign labor contracts.

Tonight's violence occurred at the Franklin gate of the Cambria works.

APPEALS TO PRESIDENT
Mayor Shields' appeal, it was announced at the White House, would be referred to the President. No further comment was forthcoming.

Bethlehem tonight reiterated its opposition to a signed agreement with the steel workers' organizing committee.

Philip Murray, chairman of the union affiliated with the John L. Lewis Committee for Industrial Organization, had wired Eugene Grace, Bethlehem president, suggesting a Government-supervised election to result in a signed contract if a majority of the 15,000 Cambria workers voted for the union.

"We cannot legally and will not illegally be a party to the coercing and intimidating of our employees as your telegram in effect asks us to," said a corporation reply to Murray.

GET THEIR MEN IN POSTOFFICE

Mounted Policemen Find Suspected Drug Peddlers Four of a Kind

MONTREAL, June 16 (AP).—Sent out to arrest four "drug peddling suspects," two Royal Canadian Mounted Police officers made the acquaintance instead of four new provincial detectives.

For several days Victor Beavis, a private investigator, had spotted the same four men meeting in the afternoon in the lobby of Montreal's main postoffice building. Each time he noticed them passing objects to one another, taking pains to ascertain no one noticed them.

ARMED WITH WARRANT

Believing they might be drug peddlers, Beavis informed the R.C.M.P. and two officers, armed with a warrant, went to the postoffice yesterday.

The four men were there and the Mounties watched them passing around the objects.

"You had better come along with us," said one of the Mounties.

"Oh, but wait a minute. You don't know who we are," said one of the provincial detectives as he and the others produced badges.

The provincial officer explained the four of them had met each day to exchange notes and brief reports on various cases.

HYDRANT BROKEN WHEN CARS CRASH

Taxi and Automobile Are in Collision in 1200 Block on Yates Street

A taxicab driven west on Yates Street at 6:15 o'clock last evening by Robert Walker, 1751 Haultain Street, collided with an automobile owned by Eric Wilkinson, 3109 Harriet Road, in the 1200 block, police report.

Miss Doris Dumbarton, a passenger in the taxi, suffered from shock and was conveyed home by a friend. Walker received a cut on his lower lip. A fire hydrant was broken off at the base by the force of the collision. The taxi was badly damaged. Damage to the automobile was confined to the left rear wheel and axle.

Measurements were taken by Constables Wally Andrews and Benjamin Acreman.

PIPER'S GIVEN FINE GREETING

Trip to Portland Described By Major R. D. Harvey, Officer in Charge

The warm welcome given the pipes and drums of the Second Battalion, Canadian Scottish Regiment, and the valuable publicity they gave the city of Victoria during their visit to Portland, June 11-12, is outlined in a memorandum submitted by George I. Warren, commissioner, Victoria and Island Publicity Bureau, yesterday, by Major R. D. Harvey, who was in charge of the band.

The band was met on its arrival in Portland by representatives of the Rose Festival committee, the Canadian and American Legations, Alderman Adam and Mr. Warren, and was quartered at the Norton Hotel. Members were entertained at a complimentary luncheon under the auspices of the parade committee, and later played at a luncheon for distinguished guests, who included the Governor of Oregon.

Next days, pipes and drums were heard at a breakfast at the Multnomah Hotel, where Mayor Andrew McGavin was guest speaker. They later played in the rotunda of the hotel, and at the City Hall, where they were welcomed by Mayor Carson, of Portland.

WERE WARMLY CHEERED

Thereafter they marched to Multnomah Stadium, took part in the grand parade, and in the evening participated in a six-mile march through the city. On both occasions, the band was enthusiastically cheered by the crowd.

In the evening, "Retreat" was played at the Veterans' Military Hospital.

At the "knighting" of Mayor McGavin and Ald. Adam by the Queen of the Festival, the representatives of this city were attended by Mayor Harvey, and piped in and out of the stadium.

On Saturday, the band played at police headquarters, participated in the junior parade, and also in the downtown area at hotels, newspaper offices and at the Chamber of Commerce. In the evening, members were special guests of the Canadian Legion, and left Portland at 11:30 for Victoria. Captain Donald Cameron (W.O.) was in command of the band.

PRICE OF GOLD WILL STAY UP

Bank Executive Cautious Over Problem Agitating Economists

BRENTON P. ALLEY

Crop prospects in Manitoba, Eastern and Northern Saskatchewan, and Northern and Southwestern Alberta are good, in the opinion of Brenton P. Alley, Toronto, assistant general manager of the Canadian Bank of Commerce, who was in Victoria this week.

He maintains that wherever the crop outlook is good, business is improving, but is pessimistic after investigating conditions in the Southern Saskatchewan drought areas.

He found business retarded in Alberta due to lack of confidence in the financial outlook, and declared that though there was a housing shortage in Edmonton, people were not building, since the outlook was not clear.

Mr. Alley is cautious about the gold situation now agitating world financial centres, holding that if world economists cannot agree on the proper price level for the precious metal, a banker should not be too dogmatic. He does not think the price of gold will fall in the near future, and refused comment upon the advisability of the Empire going back on the gold standard.

Steadily increasing business prospects have caused the demand for loans under the home improvement plan to increase proportionately, he has found, and British Columbia in this connection has made a very creditable showing.

Mr. Alley rested here a few days before departing for Eastern Canada.

EXCESS PROFITS TAX PLANNED IN BRITAIN

a tax base of 1-5th of the difference between their actual profits and £12,000.

(A corporation with £4,000 income would deduct 1-5th the difference between that amount and £12,000, which would be £1,600 plus the £2,000 flat exemption allowed and pay 5 per cent on the remaining £400.)

DEPRECIATION ALLOWED

Investment income generally would not be included, and tax assessments will allow for depreciation in industries. Interest on borrowed money may be deducted.

The tax is expected to yield £24,700,000 (almost $123,500,000) a year, approximately the amount originally estimated from the growth of profits tax, or national defence contribution.

The tax may be remitted in part or in whole to industries established to give relief in the special (depressed) areas upon recommendation of the commissioner for these areas.

Sir John Simon, Chancellor of the Exchequer, will explain the tax in the House of Commons on Monday when a financial resolution based on the White Paper is expected to be introduced.

FRASER ABSOLVED OF HEDLEY CHARGES

The three were charged with conspiracy in connection with alleged "salting" of Hedley ore samples. The charges were laid following sudden collapse of Hedley shares on the Vancouver Stock Exchange last February and a subsequent Government investigation which stated "salting" of ore samples was "evident."

Gwynne Hurrell, a director of Hedley and also of a Vancouver brokerage firm, said he had told his clients to sell the stock after a hurried consultation with J. R. Williams, assayer, on February 22, the day before the stock dropped from a high of $1.05 to less than 40 cents.

DUTY TO CLIENTS

"You thought your duty was to your clients?" asked Philip S. Marsden, counsel for Fraser.

"Yes," replied Hurrell.

"Even as a director of Hedley?"

"Yes."

"Why did you not give this information to the press?"

"The Department of Mines had the information that morning before the market opened."

Hurrell said his company had become interested in Hedley when the good reports from drilling began to come in. He got his information from Barker and Williams' assay reports, he said.

"What really made the stock jump?" asked Leon Ladner, K.C., Barker's counsel.

The couple plans to depart June 28 for a Hawaiian honeymoon.

STIFF FIGHT FACES BLUM

In the eleventh hour about-face by which the Communist deputies today rallied to the support of the Popular Front in its demand for sweeping financial powers, Premier Leon Blum told Havas News Agency tonight.

"I take exception to the false rumors which attribute the Communist party's final decision to any motive except that stated in the Chamber by Duclos (Jacques Duclos, parliamentary Communist leader), who declared the Communists voted for the Government in order to keep the Popular Front union intact," Premier Blum said.

DEFINES POWERS

Blum emphasized the special powers sought by the Government do not authorize the Government to touch the present parity of the franc or institute exchange control. Contemplated increases in certain taxes, Blum explained, would be offset by wage increases. Prime necessities such as coffee, sugar and gasoline will not be surtaxed.

CELEBRATES BIRTHDAY WITH GAME OF TENNIS

STOCKHOLM, June 16 (AP).—King Gustaf V, Europe's oldest reigning sovereign, celebrated his seventy-ninth birthday only with a game of tennis at Tullgarn Palace, his Summer residence, while cannon boomed salutes in Sweden's beflagged capital. The King will celebrate the thirtieth anniversary of his accession to the throne on December 1.

Gustaf recently returned from a fishing trip in Baltic waters.

SOFIA, Bulgaria, June 16 (AP).—Queen Giovanna, wife of King Boris, gave birth today to a son who may some day rule Bulgaria, and military garrisons throughout the land fired salutes of 100 guns. There would have been only twenty-one for a girl.

The mother and the little crown prince were reported in excellent health.

DISPUTE OVER ALLEGED OPTION

Real estate dealers were specially interested in County Court yesterday afternoon in the argument before Judge H. H. Shandley concerning an alleged option on the Cooper Block, Government Street, and a contention it was not an option, but only a document expressing a readiness to buy. His Honor reserved judgment at conclusion of the hearing.

The plaintiff was the firm of Wise & Co., represented by W. H. M. Hal-dane, while W. H. Bullock-Welsh appeared for the defendant, Montague Bridgman.

PECULIAR DOCUMENT

It is admitted by both sides the document was peculiar in character, the purported option carried with it a cheque for $250 given by the defendant and was alleged to set out a sixty-day option for $16,000 on the Cooper Block. In due course, Wise & Company turned over the cheque to Charles Bishop, representing the owner of the block.

When the transaction was not completed, Wise & Company took action to collect the amount of the cheque. The hearing called for an interpretation of the document as to whether it was an option or not.

POWER PLANT BURNT AT KAMLOOPS MINE

KAMLOOPS, June 16 (AP).—An investigation was being made today into a fire which yesterday destroyed the power plant at Windpass gold mine, near here. Operations have been shut down until new generating equipment can be obtained. Gardiner Thompson, on shift at the time, suffered slightly from burns.

Dr. Richard Felton Elected President Of Festival Group

Heads Victoria Musical Festival Association for Current Year—Deficit Reported on Last Year's Operation—Annual Meeting Held Last Night

Dr. Richard Felton, medical health officer for Victoria and prominent in musical circles in the Capital City for many years, was elected president of the Victoria Musical Festival Association at the eleventh annual meeting held last night in the council chamber at the City Hall, with Mrs. J. Hebdon Gillespie in the chair.

The principal business of the meeting was receiving reports of officers, general discussion and the election of a new slate for 1937-38. The question of finances, it was stated by P. A. Gibbs, retiring treasurer, was causing some concern to the organization, as the association closed its financial year with a deficit of $447.16.

FINANCIAL AFFAIRS

Mr. Gibbs remarked the receipts and expenditures had not increased during the last three years, but the deficit had continued until it was necessary for the future to devise some means of reducing the overhead cost. He mentioned it might be possible to have the municipalities renew their grants of former years and to interest the Minister of Education in the value of the work of the association. He suggested, but only as a last resort, a reduction in fees to adjudicators, which might mean using only two adjudicators during the festival.

The treasurer said the association could expect a normal deficit of around $400 a year if the present standard of the festival was to be maintained. Following his election as president, Dr. Felton stated it might be necessary to make some changes during the current year, but he did not expect them to be of a drastic nature. During the informal discussion many suggestions were made concerning methods to increase the revenues of the association.

PRESIDENT'S REPORT

Mrs. J. Hebdon Gillespie's report as retiring president reviewed the activities of the association during the past year and also extended thanks to the organizations and individuals who had assisted in the work of the board. She specially thanked the members of the newly-formed Women's Auxiliary, under the direction of Mrs. Harold A. Beckwith, for their valuable work in connection with the last festival. She also spoke of the co-operation of all members of the board of directors and officers and the harmony that had prevailed during her term of office. She wished the incoming officers and board every success this year.

Other reports received were from the corresponding secretary, Mrs. T. Hardy; the report of the recording secretary, Mrs. N. E. Fairweather; and the report of the president of the Women's Auxiliary, Mrs. Harold A. Beckwith, and the financial statement presented by Harold G. Hinton, auditor.

OFFICERS ELECTED

After the general business was concluded, the election of officers was proceeded with, the following being elected: President, Dr. Felton; first vice-president, P. A. ## PARLIAMENT OF EMPIRE SUGGESTED

Organizer for Lloyd George Party Visualizes Potent Factor for Peace

ALEXANDER THOMSON
REVIEWS PROBLEMS

"I earnestly believe that the Imperial Conference, which now bring the Dominions and the Motherland together at round-table talks, could very easily be developed into an Empire Parliament that would insure even greater Empire unity, and be a potent factor in the maintaining of world peace," Rev. Alexander Thomson, of the First Congregational Church, Canterbury, England, stated in an interview here yesterday.

Mr. Thomson is visiting relatives in Victoria and on the mainland before going to New York, where he will start an international lecture tour. As head organizer for the Lloyd George Government during the Great War, Mr. Thomson has always taken a keen interest in national and international politics, and is a profound student of international affairs. At present he is staying with his daughter, Mrs. W. L. Llewellyn 1825 Fern Street, and during his brief visit here he will complete the pastoral term of Rev. J. Richmond Craig at Fairfield United Church, starting on Sunday.

BOND OF UNITY

Discussing the Imperial Conference, Mr. Thomson felt that the formation of an Empire Parliament, where matters affecting the various interests of the Commonwealth of Nations could be discussed and decided upon each year, would do much to strengthen the bond of union so delicately, yet strongly, held by the British throne. Such a parliament would assure the continuity of Empire unity in the event that Great Britain should adopt republican government at some future date, he said. He also thought that the United States might thus be encouraged to enter into mutual agreement with the other English-speaking countries in a concerted effort on the part of the Anglo-Saxon race to bring about world peace.

Touching upon the present armament programme of Great Britain, Mr. Thomson said that while most of us crave for peace, and would see it come by other means, yet the scheme presented to the people by the British Government is difficult to oppose.

IGNORES GESTURE

"Great Britain made the gesture to Continental Europe to disarm, but her gesture was ignored. In doing so, we probably left ourselves in a vulnerable position. Hence Great Britain today has to perforce arm herself against the Continental menace that exists," he asserted.

"It is impossible for the British Isles to adopt an attitude of isolation. Her interests are too closely interwoven with Continental Europe, and to adopt a position of isolation would only weaken her arguments for a strong defence when presented to those who are stubbornly opposed to armament," Mr. Thomson continued.

FORCE REQUIRED

He regarded the League of Nations as still the main hope for world peace, but declared that the efforts of the League were impotent without the power to enforce its conditions.

Thus he favored an international force, and stated that behind Great Britain's large expenditure for armaments was the idea of providing, with other nations, the means with which to enforce peace upon those who sought to disaffect the people and stir up international strife.

Mr. Thomson illustrated his point by citing civil courts, stating that court orders and convictions were utterly useless if there existed no means with which to enforce court orders or impose a penalty to act as a deterrent where a crime had been committed. So was it on a larger scale. Internationally, the League of Nations should have the power to enforce its conditions and provide a deterrent to those who sought to frustrate international law, treaties and conditions.

PEACE BALLOT

He concluded by saying that the people had evinced an earnest desire for peace through the medium of the League of Nations when 92 per cent of the "peace" ballot, in which he took an active part in the Old Land, had been in favor of the League of Nations being used as an instrument for peace.

The League, Mr. Thomson declared, may have been far more instrumental in preserving peace, particularly in so far as Manchuria and Ethiopia were concerned, had Great Britain been in a stronger military, naval and aviation position. It was the dread of war which

RAIN AID TO PRAIRIE CROP

Manitoba Better Off Than Sister Provinces, Says Col.
Royal Burritt, D.S.O.

COL. ROYAL BURRITT, D.S.O.

"We have had plenty of rain in Manitoba, and from all indications we should have a bumper crop. Conditions with us are far better than in Alberta and Saskatchewan," declared Colonel Royal Burritt, D.S.O., Winnipeg, in an interview yesterday at the Empress Hotel.

Colonel Burritt, grand secretary-treasurer of the Benevolent Protective Order of Elks for Canada, is in British Columbia on lodge work. He has been extremely busy since he came West.

He attended the Alberta convention of Elks at Sylvan Lake and the recent British Columbia convention held in Duncan. Last week he dedicated the new Elks home in New Westminster. In addition he has visited Interior lodges.

Unlike many visitors to the city, he was pleased to see the rain. "It's very pleasant," he said, "and I dare say it will help your gardens and farms. I know we would welcome it on the Prairies."

The colonel declared he was pleased to again visit the West. "Your people are extremely hospitable, and I have enjoyed every minute of my stay here. I am only sorry it could not be longer," he remarked.

Following a sightseeing tour about the city and district he addressed the local Elks Lodge last evening and left on the night boat for Vancouver, en route to his home.

INTERNATIONAL DEBTS

The fact that another international debt settlement day has passed by without Great Britain making a payment to the United States, has led some commentators on the situation to make caustic remarks. One American, however, Mr. J. B. Grey, of Cleveland, Ohio, does not take the viewpoint of some of his compatriots. He points out that Great Britain's debt to his country was a credit for goods. It was not gold or cash. In 1914 Great Britain had paid the United States cash for two-thirds of what she got. By 1917-1918 she was given goods' credit by the United States and had commenced to pay three or four times the price of the goods, as compared with prices prevailing in 1914. In other words, says Mr. Grey, "the United States was like a merchant with a corner on certain necessities who got three times his price for them, got two-thirds paid in cash and took notes for the balance."

Mr. Grey points out that the United States went into the war a debtor and came out an overwhelming creditor. Great Britain during the war loaned her Allies $8,995,000,000. "I have been two or three times in England," says Mr. Grey, "and never heard when there about 'all these Allies who owe us (the British) money.' The fact is I never heard an Englishman or Scotchman mention it. Yet Great Britain owed up $17,000,000,000 of her foreign credits or loans to do it. The United States loaned Great Britain in goods, $4,394,180,000. She bought, from 1914, more than $12,500,000,000 worth. The difference was paid. This debt, with interest added, was finally funded at $4,600,000,000, to run a little over sixty years—at mostly 3½ per cent interest. Between two and three hundred millions had been paid on this up until the time of the Hoover moratorium. An effort was made when Mr. Roosevelt came into office to make part payments again, but Mr. Roosevelt waived the commission aside with a curt 'All or none.' He was too busy with other things then. International debts are usually paid by international trade, but after the funding the United States put up the highest tariff wall in its history and shut off trading."

"Don't forget that England has $8,995,000,000 she never got back and never will. Britain offered to cancel this immense sum if all the creditor nations would do the same. The only other creditor was the United States. The latter was not willing. England asked only from her creditors what she would need, including reparations, to pay the United States. There are a number of American States which, some years ago, floated loans in Great Britain (I am not referring to the Southern States during the Civil War); later, due to depression, they defaulted on them. Neither principal nor interest has ever been paid. That Britain has and will make an honest effort to pay, no one doubts who knows the situation; but at present it is just as impossible for Britain to pay the United States as it is for Britain to collect. In view of all these facts, I think the debt talk should be in a lower tone of voice."

VANCOUVER ISLAND'S ROADS

The Montreal Gazette quotes an English journalist interviewed in Victoria who said that some of the roads on Vancouver Island are "the worst on the North American continent." That is not favorable advertising for this part of the Dominion, especially when it is considered that the island is doing what it can to attract visitors to its shores. Moreover, the statement, which is at least in part true, is a strong reflection on the Provincial Government for its neglect.

The fact is that for some years past the programme for the maintenance of Vancouver Island's roads has been spasmodic. It does not seem to be part of a routine policy devised to insure good surfaces whatever weather conditions are. It is not only tourists who complain, but the regular users of the roads as well. It is small wonder that Vancouver Island should consider that it is being discriminated against where Provincial outlays on road maintenance are concerned.

If the tourist traffic is to be fostered in this part of British Columbia, those interested should concentrate continuously on inducing the Provincial Government to keep the roads of the island in first-class condition. That is the chief contribution that a Government can make in advancing the tourist industry. As well, it has a duty to its own taxpayers in providing them with up-to-date means of transportation so that they can go upon their lawful occasions in ease and comfort. It is far from being a pleasing reflection that publicity should be given far afield to the fact that some of the worst roads to be found on the North American continent are on Vancouver Island.

GOOD COMPANIONS

It is admitted that the work of the Victorian Order of Nurses, which has been going on in Canada for almost forty years, is one of the most utilitarian of all community services. It pays dividends in the amelioration of sickness and suffering. It gives home nursing to those unable to pay hospital costs and also to those convalescing after hospital treatment. The work is appreciated everywhere, for the nurse goes to households as a good companion, a friendly visitor who is essentially sympathetic and practical and who does what is needed expeditiously and in a tactful way. Those who pay, as well as those who cannot, appreciate the services equally.

The Order here is holding a tag day on Saturday and public generosity will have an opportunity to pay its tribute to what has been described as "the most important body of women concerned with health work," an institution that has kept pace with modern advances in health and health work. Last year the local nurses of this Order paid 11,082 visits to 1,945 patients, and 7,386 of these visits were free. The work of the Order is on the increase, for whereas during the first four months of last year there were 847 new patients; for the same period this year the number had increased to 1,577 patients. The number of visits during the same periods were 4,626 in 1936 and 5,547 in 1937.

The record speaks for itself and speaks with insistent voice in thousands of homes where sorrow and sickness have been alleviated. It ought to be a task of supererogation to ask the public to support an organization of this character. What is of definite and cumulative benefit to humanity should have a strong appeal to every philanthropic heart. The Victorian Order deserves the support of every lover of humanity, and Saturday's tag day should meet with a staunch response so that the work which has earned encomiums throughout the length and breadth of the Dominion suffers no diminution in this community through lack of funds.

RELYING ON GREAT BRITAIN

Mr. de Valera, despite his new constitution which tends to give the status of a republic to the Irish Free State, still relies on Great Britain for the defence of Ireland. He has said as much. It is because of British protection that the Free State can restrict its military preparations, and the Mr. de Valera has no intention of cutting the painter altogether. Here is his statement:

"If we had these territories of ours and our independence as a nation completely recognized, it would be our duty to do everything in our power to see that no foreign country got a foothold on our soil. If that were the position we also would be organizing our people and using our resources to see that the position of our independence would be maintained. The British have an interest in seeing that no foreign Power gets a foothold here. If our strength is not sufficient to prevent an attack from outside they would have an interest in coming to our aid, and we have an interest in getting their aid, provided it is quite clear that that aid is to prevent foreigners from invading our territory and making a base of it. In those circumstances it is quite obvious that we have the combined strength of two peoples to prevent such a situation arising."

A literary education is seemingly unnecessary for film production. Recently a publishing firm, known as Modern Library, printed "Henry Esmond," and shortly afterwards received a letter from a big film producing company in Hollywood asking if Mr. William Makepeace Thackeray would write a film version of the story. The publisher replied, saying that "Henry Esmond" was nothing, and asking the film company to wait until Mr. Thackeray's next book should come out. It would be "Vanity Fair."

At Sault Ste. Marie the members of the Sons of Italy Tennis Club postponed the opening of their season because a pair of robins built a nest at the gate entering the club grounds. They are giving the mother a chance to hatch out her young.

KING AND PEOPLE

In the tumultuary life of princes—
Friends it is stout old Samuel Johnson's phrase—
In the tumultuary life of princes—
There is but sequence of laborious days.

Peace therefore guard this Prince through years ensuing,
And Love escort wherever Duty calls:
Neither Grace fall him for his strength's renewing,
But fend unslumbering Care from his four walls.

Good-will rejoice in this his dedication—
To deeper hallowing no head may bow—
His seat a rock, the symbol of a nation,
Her tale of years the circle on his brow.

More—while throats roar and chimes ring from the steeples,
Let widening Wisdom frame a further phrase:
In the tumultuary life of peoples
Firm are the feet that tread the ancient ways.

Note and Comment

By Sandham Graves

The dream of lasting peace among all nations, for which men fought and died twenty-three years ago in Flanders, came one step closer to reality this week at London, where the British Commonwealth of Nations, inhabiting a third of the globe, reaffirmed its will to peace and offered a united front against acts of aggression. What history may record as the turning point in Western civilization, in which a world turned back from the precipice of war and set its face anew to the removal of irritations and instabilities that make for conflict, has been developing in the last few years. It is the public will towards peace, clear and unmistakable, that purpose has crystallized. It spoke loudest at the Empire Conference this week, when the British Commonwealth of Nations placed before even its own wants and requirements the aim of world amity, security and peace. It may be no stretch of imagination, but the veritable fact, that a Declaration of Peace was signed in London, with the British Empire as its first and leading signatory. Right-thinking nations will endorse that view. It may take years to undo mischief which took twenty years to develop. It may require decades to get mad dogs back into their kennels, and to stop breeding more mad dogs. A start has been made. Britain points that way, as she has done these many years when times of world crisis developed. What are your troubles; how can we ease them? That is the question the world must ask of all nations. It is a reasonable question, and it will find a reasonable answer, given time. If this be so, then the war to end war was not waged in vain. It left bleeding, smarting scars, only partly healed today. It caused untold distress and misery. It threw civilization back into the dark ages of fear, depression and want. If, however, the world war has opened the doors to a world peace, men did not die in vain. They gave the world a torch to light men's feet on to a better way. Peace or oblivion. Peace is the better, only way!

To give credit where it is due, the British Columbia Government is now reopening its forestry and placer mining training camps for young men between the ages of eighteen and twenty-five years. In other words, the Province proposes to take those who voluntarily enrol for work, and teach them something of two of the basic industries of B.C. If mining is to be carried on in this province, prospectors must be trained to take the place of those who have reached the age of retirement. If forestry means anything, men must be taught how to husband it, and turn it to advantage in the years to come. This is practical, and timely; as far removed from brain-trusting quacks and madcap quests as one may well imagine. Seasoned foresters supply the training in the woods. Private employment follows such a training. Men are launched upon their feet, and not upon their heads, as some would do it. The placer camps test out and teach the individual to stand upon his own legs; to find and make work for himself. They have seasoned instructors, also. These schemes cost money, but that money is coming back one day, with interest. In the school of hard knocks, here are two worthwhile diplomas. Take them, while you may.

A nurse down in Oklahoma had her tonsils removed while being operated upon in an airplane flying at 6,000 feet, recently. The experiment was declared to be successful; the nurse losing her tonsils on schedule. It seems a long way round to perform such an operation. Most people having their tonsils out are up in the air anyway, and it cannot make such difference to the tonsils whether they are extracted at 6,000 feet or at sea level. Just imagine a dead spot in the air at the wrong moment. She might have lost her tongue, instead of her tonsils.

Honestly, some things just should not be done. At Savannah, Georgia, twenty-five boys have been enrolled in a sewing class at school. One is the heavyweight boxing champion of his school; yet there he sits plying a needle. Telling of the class, the instructor said: "In time the boys mastered darning and patching, proper button sewing and button-hole making. They learned to clean and press suits, as well as silks and cottons. They are finishing up now with putting in square pockets."

They might, at least, have gone the rest of the way and made pinafores for themselves. What are they trying to develop in that school, men or pansters?

A Chicago couple attended a wrestling match recently, at which the woman's choice won. On the way home, her husband tried to demonstrate just how his choice could have been the victor. He applied a headlock on his wife and almost broke her neck. She divorced him.

FIFTY YEARS AGO TODAY

(From The Daily Colonist of June 17, 1887)

Gas for Vancouver—The Vancouver Gas Works Company are calling for tenders for the erection of a large brick building, which is to be used in connection with their works. The company are going into the enterprise in a business-like manner, and are surprising people with the rapidity with which they are completing their plans.

Jubilee Yacht Race—A large number of gentlemen were present at the meeting held at Javes last evening to complete arrangements for the Jubilee yacht race. Mr. Langhurst was appointed treasurer. Rules were passed and the following entries handed in: Ada, Bonanza, Albatross, Eward, Bertha, Bertha Brothers, Eva, J. H. Jones, Frolic, Jojoes, Lightning, Brown, Mary, Langhurst, Red, Jones, and Teal, Johnson.

Rescuing a Bullock—On Tuesday afternoon Bob Eastman, a private in the Royal Marine Light Infantry, discovered a fine bullock which had fallen into a pit containing twelve feet of water, and there seemed every possibility of the animal being drowned. Mr. Eastman, being a piece of good luck and making one end fast to the animal's horns and the other to a tree, raised the head out of the water. He then procured assistance and endeavored to disengage the steep side of the pit. Soon after the owner arrived and the animal was rescued.

MILL WORKER HAS MARVELOUS ESCAPE

DUNCAN, June 16 (C)—Employees of Yubou Mill, near here, were marveling today at "Cotton" Hendrickson's narrow escape from death. "Cotton" was sitting in a drive shaft of the crane, when his clothing became caught. He was whirled round twice, but managed to clutch a rail, to which he clung desperately while the revolving shaft stripped his clothing from his body. Hendrickson, numb from shock, was taken from the crane by fellow workers.

Donald Loses Ring

Down at the boarding house young Donald was quite disconsolate. In fact, he felt so bad he refused a bowl of delicious soup. Bit by bit he unfolded a tragic tale. While waiting in a shoe repair shop with a pal he accidentally threw a shoe through the shoemaker's window, and father was forthwith presented with a bill. The same day Donald gleefully received a "Buck Rogers" ring that he had waited several weeks to possess. To teach the lad a lesson, father took away the ring and announced it would have to be sold to help pay for the window. . . . Betty was also quite worried. She also pecked at her food as though she thought it contained too many calories, or vitamins, or whatever it is that gives one a surprise on the scales. But Betty's concern was not with vitamins. She left her hair in her overcoat pocket, and Sister Pat strolled off with the coat, not aware of its valuable contents. Betty also felt a bit piqued at papa. She borrowed the family chariot for a voyage to Thetis Lake. "You'll need some gasoline," quoth pa. Acting on his suggestion, Betty charged up two gallons at the corner service station. Father paid his bill, noticed a charge for two gallons he had not received, and told the attendant to collect from Betty. He did.—G.B.

Taking No Chances

At Kiwanis luncheon the other day the table discussion was criticism of the city's fire protection policy and one of two mentioned the possibility of installing their own fire extinguishers. They lived in Oak Bay. One of the Kiwanians said he had not only installed his own fire fighting apparatus, but had secured a half dozen more giant fire crackers. These, he said, he had distributed in various parts of the house and two of them above the furnace. The idea was that he would set light to the fire cracker, which would explode and awake the occupants of the home, if at night. He said he was taking no chances.—R.A.G.

Well Done, Victoria

Victoria soccer players, those lads who represented the city against the touring Old Country professionals, Charlton Athletic Club, Monday evening at the Royal Athletic Park, did a grand job. Playing together for the first time, the Victoria All-Stars looked good and all through the game never quit trying. They were beaten four goals to nothing, but were certainly unlucky not to gain at least one tally. No one expected the locals to win the game, and many who wended their way to the enclosure never expected to be treated to such a fine performance by the Victoria All-Stars. The players are deserving of all the praise which we feel sure is being showered upon them. To the management, trainer and players we extend our congratulations and take this opportunity of saying, "Well done, Victoria."—S.T.

Glancing Over Sport

Victoria softball officials really meant business when they announced that they were not going to stand for any "monkey" business from players this season, regarding attacks on umpires. The other evening at a long session behind closed doors they met out a very stiff five-year suspension to a player in the "C" section. Although I think the penalty was severe, the player has no one to blame but himself, for the officials have constantly warned them through the press that these attacks on umpires, who are sometimes picked from spectators, and will not be tolerated. . . . The Louis-Braddock fight is drawing near and I have been approached quite often lately concerning my selection, for the boys want to know which way to bet. Well, watch for Sunday's issue and I will attempt to name the round which the fight will end. . . . That smart thirty-seven for the first time on Thursday, shot by Miss Dorothy Fletcher in the city golf championship, was the highlight of the day. She ran through a few bunkers and got a few "breaks" but at the same time she played shot after shot with deliberation, determination and confidence. . . . The caddies at Colwood are very good to the newspapermen. They help you to follow nearly every match in a tournament by keeping a card and telling you the features of the match. It's quite a help when about eight matches are in progress, for after all, you cannot be all over the course at the same time.—J.D.

The Visitors

Charlton Athletic footballers have come amongst us and have gone again. They were very welcome and it is to be hoped that this will not be the last time they visit this island. On another occasion it is to be hoped that an Upper-Island city, renowned across Canada for its football, will be given the opportunity of entertaining them, for Nanaimo has turned out some wonderful teams in its time, and will do so again. From the viewpoint of our good friends, seventy miles to the north, they were not treated fairly. The setback they have received is something of a body-blow to the game. Further, they have recently lost some of their finest players by death and, to make matters worse, the Central Sports Grounds, scene of many a Trojan struggle, has been taken over by the energetic box-lacrosse people. All these things—have come within a year. At least one blow might have been eradicated if the football powers had seen fit to play Charlton at Nanaimo. They might realize that whatever weakens soccer on the island weakens it throughout the Province. It is too good a game, too fine a sport to suffer as it has.—B.G.

YOUTH CONGRESS

Sir,—At the last Canadian Youth Congress held recently in Montreal, where representatives of many youth organizations and youth councils gathered to discuss topics of common interest, the French-Canadian delegates, as a condition of their co-operation, requested the congress to endorse a seven-point resolution, as follows:

"That French-Canadian representation consist of one-third of the official delegates and the continuations committee."

"That the congress acknowledge the French as Le Congres des Jeunes Canadiens."

"That the congress favor justice to all."

"That the aims of the congress be internal and world peace."

"That the congress proceed according to the principles of democracy and affirm (a) a belief in God, (b) the right of individuals to property, (c) the necessity for international peace and co-operation between all classes, (d) the sanctity of the human personality."

"That the congress condemn subversive doctrines."

The above resolution was accepted by the rest of the congress, though how the Communist and other left delegates could have done so, when their movements continually issue so many pamphlets and newspapers condemning the very things the resolution endorses like religion, property, etc., may be difficult for some to understand. However, when it is realized that the Communists and other radicals now make use of the so-called "united front" tactics, the endorsement by the radicals of the above resolution is not hard to understand. In other words, if the radicals, and especially the Communists, can gain the support of more people in Canada by pretending to be in favor of such things as religion and property, they are now prepared to do so as evidenced by their ready endorsement of the above resolution, despite the fact that their own publications condemn such institutions as religion and private property daily. When comrade Dimitroff gave the order to employ these methods at the big congress of Communists held at Moscow in 1935, Red sympathizers in every country, including Canada, quickly used them. While such underhand methods may succeed in fooling some of the people, the Young Citizens' League is convinced that the majority of Canadians, including the youth, will not be led to sacrifice their democratic liberties for the type of government which the Communists and their sympathizers wish to establish, and which is now operating so successfully (for Mr. Stalin) in Russia today.

The above resolution embodies to perfection the very principles that the Young Citizens' League endorses, and the French-Canadian youth have the congratulations of this league in placing before a gathering of Canadian youth such as the Canadian Youth Congress, such a worthwhile and constructive resolution.

C. S. THOMAS,

President.
PETER G. HARTNELL,
Vice-President.

SOCIAL CREDIT

Sir,—As a Douglas Social Creditor I heartily agree with your claim that the machine is in no wise the cause of any diminution in the long run, in gainful employment.

There has been, as you state, a steady increase in the number of people per thousand of the population who are gainfully employed, and this increase has continued from the invention of the steam engine up to the present.

The bidding varied greatly at the different tables, but in the six mentioned the horrible contract of seven spades was reached. This was one typical series of bids:

South West North East
1 ♠ 2 ♠ 3 ♠ 4 ♠
4 ♠ Pass 5 ♠ Pass
6 ♠ Pass 6 ♠ Pass
7 ♠ Pass Pass Pass

There was no excuse for South's last bid, as above noted. North had, it is true, "cue bid" both of the red suits, showing first round control, but these controls would take care only of South's two hearts. The crucial suit (clubs) had to be filled in completely by North with a singleton, a doubleton king, or if North had three clubs, both the king and queen. There was no indication from North's bidding that, in addition to the red aces, he held any one of these club combinations, and, therefore, South certainly should have contented himself with a small slam.

At another table the bidding went:

South West North East
1 ♠ 2 ♠ 3 ♠ 4 ♠
5 ♠ Pass 6 ♠ 7 ♠
7 ♠ Pass Pass Pass

And here, obviously, North and South were simply "stabbing at the moon."

Curiously enough, despite the fact that most of the teams were using asking bids, not one of the six South players had the presence of mind to make a five club asking bid over East's four heart or four diamond bid. Obviously a negative response from North, denying first or second round club control, would keep South out of the hopeless grand slam contract.

Those teams that properly started with a two way three bid on the South hand never even approached trouble. West was not strong enough to overcall at the ten trick level, and North responded with four spades. South then could, with comparative safety, investigate a slam by "asking" in hearts, and when the response came five no trump, a little slam appeared an excellent gamble.

TODAY'S QUESTION

LADIES' WHITE SHOES $1.95

SMART NEW STYLES IN SANDALS, T-STRAPS, TIES AND OXFORDS

"THE WAREHOUSE"

1120 DOUGLAS ST. 1110 GOVERNMENT ST. PAIR

In the year 1870 it took 324 out of every thousand alive in the United States to produce the goods created in that country. In 1930 it took approximately 400 people, at work and gainfully employed, out of every thousand to do the work necessary, despite the enormous growth in mechanical production.

Although employment per thousand of the population in mechanical production did not increase quite as fast as in some other lines, nevertheless it did increase. In 1870 in the United States 22 per cent of all persons employed were at work in manufacturing and mechanical industries; in 1930 28.6 per cent of all the employed were in mechanical and manufacturing industries.

There has been a marked falling off in employment in farming and allied industries—from 52.8 to 21.3—but the gain in employment in all other activities more than made up for the loss.

Fewer people out of every thousand were required to produce a far greater quantity of food. Those released from this branch of activity went into manufacturing industries, service and professional, education, and other work that indicates a rising standard of living.

These figures are on the authority of "Recent Economic Trends," the compilation authorized by President Hoover and carried out by a number of foremost economists, and are to be found in the 1,200-page work of that title. You will note that the final figures, for 1930, relate to a time when the depression was well under way.

Now, if we can avoid depressions, which are a purely financial phenomenon, caused by the periodical breakdown of a money system utterly inadequate to finance an expanding production of goods except by the creation of a burden of debt to the banking system—a debt which is fated to crash down and bring millions to ruin and despair every few years—we have nothing to fear from the machine.

All we need is the Social Credit proposal to introduce debt-free money into the economic system at exactly the rate at which productive power expands, as proposed by Major Douglas. Then we can proceed to produce goods right up to the effective capacity of both men and machines to produce, and the desire of the people—the producers—to consume them.

Extension of Limit On Option to Lease Grain Plant Passed

City Council Wires Harvey Kavaner, Winnipeg, That He Has Until the End of June to Take Over Elevator at Ogden Point

EXTENSION of time until the end of June on his option to lease the grain elevator at Ogden Point was granted Harvey Kavaner, Winnipeg, at a meeting of the City Council yesterday afternoon. On motion of Alderman R. A. C. Dewar, seconded by Alderman Dr. J. D. Hunter, Alderman Archie Willis' business and trade development committee was asked to negotiate for a nominal rental of $1 per year, retroactive to May, 1935, on Ogden Point property, and to deal with a quit claim document from Panama Pacific Grain Terminals, Limited.

A motion to extend the lease option period until the end of June to Mr. Kavaner was moved by Alderman Hunter and seconded by Alderman Dewar, who remarked that Mr. Kavaner was said to be one of Western Canada's leading grain experts.

Alderman Willis urged the council to have an alternative agreement in mind if this season's crop business was to be secured. He thought the deal fairly speculative, but was in favor of extending the option period.

NOMINAL RENTAL

H. B. Pringle, city solicitor, urged action to secure a nominal rental of $1 per year from the Federal Government on property housing the elevator while it had been unused since May, 1935. He expected a quit claim deed would soon be available from Panama Pacific Grain Terminals, Ltd.

Alderman W. Lloyd Morgan thought the council should co-operate with Mr. Kavaner in order that the elevator might be placed in operation.

Mayor Andrew McGavin ordered the city clerk to telegraph Mr. Kavaner that his option to lease the plant had been extended until the end of June.

In adopting recommendations of the finance committee, the council decided to ask for a deposit on all sheet music borrowed from the music library and to ask for a report on damage done to music by a local church. W. Wallis was appointed junior clerk to fill a vacancy caused by resignation of K. Williams from the treasury department. St. Joseph's Hospital was ordered paid $195 for relief patients. The city clerk was asked to inform J. Howard A. Chapman that the council had no jurisdiction over the Show Boat, nor were any contributions made.

Dr. Richard Fulton's May health report showed a slight improvement. Greater Victoria. There were fourteen cases of chicken pox, eighty of measles, nine of mumps, one of erysipelas and eleven of pulmonary tuberculosis in the city during the month.

TREE REMOVALS

Boulevard trees blocking sewers at 2628 Fernwood Road and 413 Langford Street were ordered removed. Tenders of $40.20 from Victoria Junk Agency to purchase scrap iron and $104.90 for scrap cast-iron from Northern Iron Company were accepted. Standard Oil Company of British Columbia was granted permission to convert a building on the northeast corner of Pandora Avenue and Broad Street into a service station. Hugh Francis was given permission to install a gasoline tank and pump at 720 View Street.

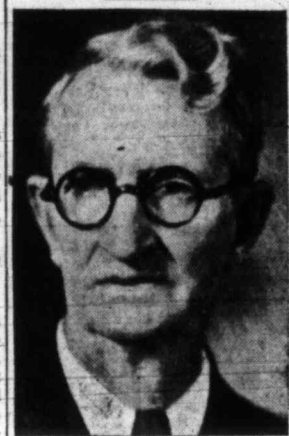

A letter from the Federal Department of Public Works asking for a detailed plan of the location and property adjoining a site, near the Johnson Street bridge, at which the city hopes to have a fishermen's wharf or float constructed, was referred to the harbor committee. The communication pointed out letters had been received from parties objecting to a float where fishermen could secure free moorings, and that an amendment to the harbor line would have to be approved by an order in council.

COCKTAILS FOUND CAUSE OF CRIME

JOHANNESBURG (BUP).—"Cocktails" and crime go together in South Africa, where an alarming increase in native crime has led to a police inquiry. Despite the strict ban on the sale of alcoholic drinks to natives, there are dozens of "speakeasies" where the natives can buy their favorite cocktail. The police are investigating the matter. The drink, made from meat, corn meal, sugar and yeast, is very potent and one tinfal is usually enough to start a riot.

W. H. YOUHILL LABOR CHIEF

Succeeds J. W. Casey as President of Trades and Labor Council

—Photograph by Chas. WILLIAM H. YOUHILL

At last night's meeting of Victoria Trades and Labor Council, William H. Youhill, a delegate from the Victoria Typographical Union, was elected to the presidency by acclamation.

When the order of business for election of officers was taken up, there were two nominees for the position of president, recently resigned by J. W. Casey. These were Vice-President W. J. Campbell and Mr. Youhill. Mr. Campbell, however, declined, and Mr. Youhill was elected by acclamation.

TO INCREASE INTEREST

In accepting the honor conferred upon him, the new president announced his intention of prosecuting a campaign to increase interest in the affairs of the council and boost attendance at the meetings.

Although there was not a very large attendance last evening at the meeting, some rather vital questions came up for discussion. Principal among these was the status of the various organizations which have charters from either the American Federation of Labor or the Canadian Trades and Labor Congress, and which are desirous of affiliating with the Committee of Industrial Organization.

RULING SOUGHT

It appeared that those engaged in some of the woodworking trades were considering joining the new body, and asked for a ruling. This the chair did not feel justified in giving, and the matter will be taken up with the Canadian Trades and Labor Congress.

Another matter given considerable attention was the organization of taxi drivers and coach drivers in this district, and a committee was struck to handle the matter in the meantime, to report at the next meeting.

PARKING TIME IS TO BE SHORTENED

City Council to Introduce Half-Hour Limit on Yates Street Below Government

An amendment to streets traffic by-law, introduced to the City Council yesterday afternoon, calls for a parking limit of one-half hour between the hours of 9 a.m. and 6 p.m., on Yates Street, between Government and Wharf Streets.

In the following terms, the by-law also covers the littering of streets by sawdust, ashes or debris:

"No person shall throw or deposit any loose material, stone, or other substance or object upon or over any sidewalk, street or public place. No person shall carry or transport along any street in the city any sawdust, ashes or debris or other loose material liable to be blown or scattered by the wind, unless the same is securely covered or protected so as to prevent the same from being blown or scattered on or over said street."

Also, in the amendment, is a clause constituting the thoroughfare across the stone bridge in Beacon Hill Park a one-way road. Another measure introduced, part Dallas Road closing by-law, 1937, provides for the closing of the road from Moss to Bushy Streets, while the city conducts straightening operations to eliminate a blind turn.

CONSTIPATION MAY LEAD TO COLDS

Every doctor will tell you the first thing to do to avoid suffering from colds—is to be sure you are not constipated. Constipation clogs up the system. It weakens resistance, and infections take hold. End common constipation by eating Kellogg's ALL-BRAN regularly. This cereal supplies the "bulk" your system needs for normal, natural action. It also gives vitamin B to tone up the intestines—and iron for the blood.

In the body, Kellogg's ALL-BRAN absorbs twice its weight in water. It forms a soft mass, which gently exercises and sponges out the intestines. Eat two tablespoons a day, either as a cereal with milk or fruits or in cooked dishes. Chronic cases with each meal. Will help you stay regular without having to take pills and drugs—that often make conditions worse. Kellogg's ALL-BRAN is sold at all grocers. Made and guaranteed by Kellogg in London.

Collections Show Healthy Increase Council Informed

IN a statement to the City Council yesterday afternoon, Alderman Dr. J. D. Hunter, chairman of the finance committee, informed Mayor Andrew McGavin and aldermen that collection of arrears taxes stood at $96,534.99 on May 31, compared with $88,537.53 at the same date in 1936. Current tax receipts were $527,974.73 on May 31, compared with $523,463.65 at the same date last year. Dog taxes collected at the end of May totaled $3,902.50, compared with $3,751 for the whole of 1936. Trade licence collections were $44,309.10, compared with $44,099.86 on May 31, 1936.

B.C. CANNERS ARE ALARMED

H. C. Oldfield Says Protest Will Be Made to Industrial Relations Board

Alarmed at possible increase in fruit and vegetable canner minimum wage schedules at a time when British Columbia growers and canners are fighting severe encroachment on Western markets by Eastern packing houses, the British Columbia Coast Growers' Association will lodge formal protest with the British Columbia Industrial Relations Board, H. C. Oldfield, president of the Saanich Fruit Growers' Association, said yesterday.

Mr. Oldfield pointed out that Western producers had already lost the Winnipeg market, and were meeting intense competition from Eastern growers as far west as Regina. With fixed costs of production in respect to cans, sugar, crating and transportation, Western producers were already at a severe handicap with cheap labor centres in the East, he said.

QUESTION OF OUTLET

Under these conditions, the problem of adequate outlets for the Western jam pack in strawberries, logans, cherries, raspberries and black currants had progressively become more serious; while any attempt now to heighten labor costs would only mean serious disruption of the industry, with consequent loss to growers and packers alike, Mr. Oldfield contended.

Production for Vancouver Island and Lower Mainland canned products had fallen sharply from 1,200 tons to 800 tons in the last few years, without visible signs of immediate improvement this year. Instead, Eastern competition is spreading further west, making even the Regina market doubtful for Western growers this season, he declared.

FEAR HIGHER COSTS

"We are not asking for any special privilege. If we can just get fair play right across the country, that is all we seek. With fixed costs and growing competition from the East, the grower has been taking the cut, and there is nowhere else it can come from under those conditions. As I understand it, the basic minimum rate now is 30 cents an hour, but provisional orders of the board have maintained the 27½-cent rate in recent years. Any effort to increase that rate this year would be just about the last straw," Mr. Oldfield said.

"So far as the British Columbia Coast Growers are concerned, a third of our production goes into manufactured products, including small fruits. The crux of the problem is the differential between rates of pay for canner help East and West. Manufacturing costs are materially lower in the East, and their competition in areas which were formerly served from the West, is increasing. We have lost the Winnipeg market now, and it is a question how much we can sell at any point east of Regina, including Regina itself."

WILL ENTER PROTEST

"We have not yet been advised as to when there will be a meeting of the British Columbia Industrial Relations Board in Victoria. But when there is a meeting, we are going to make a formal protest on the straight facts of the case. It is something of a pity that when there is a prospect of improvement within Canada, artificial barriers are interposed to check it," Mr. Oldfield declared.

Captain E. Livesay, manager of the Saanich Fruit Growers' Association, and others, would be associated with him in an appearance before the board at the first available opportunity, Mr. Oldfield said.

Citing figures for canned products, Mr. Oldfield said that since 1929, Canadian production in canned vegetables, soups and catsups had increased 29 per cent, while British Columbia production had dropped 23 per cent; all fruits and jam had decreased 4.5 per cent, while British Columbia production had decreased 44 per cent; and the British Columbia pack, in all cases, was on the decline.

Tribute to Work of Metropolitan Pastor Paid at Social Union Meeting

Rev. Dr. A. D. W. R. Seeley presided in the absence of the president, Rev. J. W. Churchill. Dr. Reid's subject was "Australia," where he has visited for some time.

Farewell addresses were delivered by Rev. Dr. W. G. Wilson, Mrs. May Bishop and Rev. W. R. Brown to Rev. E. F. Church and Mrs. Church prior to their departure for Vancouver, where Mr. Church will become pastor of Chown-United Church. Mr. Church will conclude his pastorate at Metropolitan Church on Sunday, June 27. Dr. Wilson spoke on the good work which Mr. Church had done while in Victoria.

A letter of condolence will be sent to Mrs. J. W. Saunby, member of the Centennial Church, who recently underwent an operation.

Angling Record Smashed Again

SYDNEY, N.S.W. (BUP).—When Zane Grey, American novelist, caught a 1,036-pound shark in Australia recently, he set a mark for ambitious anglers to strive for.

Now he has been beaten by Dr. Erik Fischer, Danish consul in Sydney, who caught a 1,049-pound monster off Sydney Heads. The fish, the largest ever caught with rod and line, towed Dr. Fischer's twenty-foot launch for nearly a mile before it was brought alongside. It was thirteen feet long and six feet eight inches round the middle.

Obituary

CONNASON—There passed away yesterday at St. Joseph's Hospital at the age of fifty-one years, Rudolph Carl Connason, 822 Catherine Street. Born in Osaage City, Kansas, Mr. Connason had been a resident of Victoria for the past thirty-two years, and was a member of the Columbia Lodge, No. 2, I.O.O.F., and Colfax Rebekah Lodge, No. 1. He is survived by his widow and two sons, Roy and Harold, all at home; four brothers, Albert, Bend, Ore.; Victor, Carnation, Wash.; Raymond, Kent, Wash.; Edwin, Nyassa, Ore.; three sisters, Mrs. C. ## TENSION MOUNTS AS STRIKES PROLONGED action in calling a strike at this plant is not based on any claim that the terms of employment are unsatisfactory, but rather for the purpose of forcing our employees to join your union and pay for a chance to work."

TENSION IN OHIO

An attempt by Governor Martin L. Davey, of Ohio, to find a peaceful solution to the mounting crisis received a setback when Tom Girdler, president of Republic Steel, sent his "regrets" that he would be unable to attend Governor Davey's peace conference tomorrow, and he reaffirmed "our determination not to sign the C.I.O. contract."

President, Purnell, of Youngstown Sheet & Tube, also invited to attend Governor Davey's peace conference, sent a similar refusal, pleading a "previous engagement."

With millions of dollars in wages already irretrievably lost—the figure for Republic Steel workers on strike was estimated by President Girdler at more than $3,000,000—an independent union of the Inland Steel Company employees at Chicago threatened to sue John L. Lewis C.I.O. for loss of wages during the three-week-old strike.

Charges and counter-charges flew in Johnstown.

KIDNAPPING IS ALLEGED

Mayor Shields asserted kidnapping of non-strikers had been added to the reign of terror—the outbreaks of rioting, beatings, mob-tossing and night marauding by roving bands of hoodlums—that has marked the five-day-old strike at the Cambria works of Bethlehem Steel.

To Mayor Shields' accusation that the strikers were a "murderous element," Clinton S. Golden, sub-regional director of the steel workers' organizing committee, retorted: "The only murderous element I know of is his (Mayor Shields') citizens army."

A brooding quiet hung over the city tonight as 220 steel-helmeted State police, reinforced by 400 volunteers of the Citizens' "vigilante army," patrolled the streets.

PRODUCTION CONTINUES

A dull red glow from the great blast furnaces, enlivened by spurring showers of sparks, told that the production of steel was going ahead.

Outside the plant, on a seven-mile front, hundreds of C.I.O. workers in shirt sleeves and suspenders in the hot summer night—carefully watched the seven gates of the big works spread out along the winding Conemaugh River.

A student had been spending freely and was short of cash. It was near the holidays and he hated to write home for money. As the last resort he pawned his dress suit. When the time came to leave for home the suit was still unredeemed. He hurriedly scraped together sufficient cash to get it back, packed it in his bag, and was off. At home his mother was helping him unpack.

"Henry," she asked, "what is this ticket on your coat?"

"Why, mother," he replied, "I went to a dance the other evening and that's the cloakroom ticket."

She continued putting away his clothes. Finally she lifted the trousers; they, too, were ticketed.

"Henry," she exclaimed, "what kind of a dance was that?"

Canada Extends Favored Tariff Rates to Brazil

Order-in-Council Permits Entry of Goods at Lowest Charge Accorded Any Foreign Country by Treaty—Action Reciprocates Brazilian Regulations Favorable to Dominion

OTTAWA, June 16 (P).—Brazil has been accorded most favored nation tariff treatment by Canada under an order-in-council announced tonight. Previously goods from the big South American republic entered Canada at the intermediate tariff rates. They will now enter at the lowest tariff rate accorded any foreign country by treaty.

Brazil will thus receive the rates prescribed in the trade agreements with France, the United States and Poland.

No change has been made in the tariff rates applicable to Canadian goods entering Brazil. For some time Brazil has accorded Canada most favored nation treatment in exchange for the Canadian intermediate tariff rates.

But with four other South American countries, Uruguay, Argentina, Venezuela and Colombia already on the most-favored nation treatment, the Canadian Government considered it desirable to place Brazil on the same basis.

The change will take effect June 21 and to enjoy the most favored nation rates, goods must be shipped direct from a port of Brazil or a port of a country enjoying the British preferential or intermediate tariff direct to a sea, lake or river port of Canada.

The balance of trade between the two countries is heavily in favor of Canada. Canadian exports to Brazil are about four times Brazilian exports to Canada. In 1936 Canada shipped $3,711,000 worth of products to Brazil and brought from that country $900,000 worth. In 1935 the figures were $2,769,000 and $835,546.

PORT JEFFERSON, N.Y., June 16 (P).—Arthur E. Calnan, thirty-four, one of the Associated Press reporters assigned to the Parson's kidnapping, was killed early today when an automobile he was driving crashed into a stone wall on a Main Street curve here.

At Winchester, sawmill town on Craig Mountain, hailstones as large as hen's eggs pelted through an estimated 1,100 windows, crashed through car tops and perforated roofs. Farmers to the north and east of Winchester reported wheat stands damaged 50 to 100 per cent.

In timber stands on Craig Mountain to the south trees were stripped by the hailstones.

SUNLAND, Cal., June 16 (P).—White Horse Eagle, Osage Indian who claimed to be 115 years old, is dead here following a long illness. He died on Monday and will be buried tomorrow.

BROKEN WINDOWS ARE NUMEROUS

Hail Stones as Large as Hen's Eggs Caused Heavy Damage in Idaho

LEWISTON, Ida., June 16 (P).—Torrential rain and hail storms swept over Lewiston Valley and parts of Camas Prairie today, leaving thousands of shattered windows, wheat fields razed to the ground and streets and highways gullied and filled with debris at various points.

At Winchester, sawmill town on Craig Mountain, hailstones as large as hen's eggs pelted through an estimated 1,100 windows, crashed through car tops and perforated roofs. Farmers to the north and east of Winchester reported wheat stands damaged 50 to 100 per cent.

James Burden, caretaker, reported a heating element missing. Detective Henry Jarvis found entry had been gained by boring a hole in a window frame close to a catch.

Cabinet Away—Premier Pattullo and all but two of his ministers were out of the city yesterday on various missions. The Premier was in Vancouver and is expected back in Victoria on Friday. Hon. Dr. G. M. Weir, Hon. A. W. Gray and Hon. K. C. MacDonald were also on the mainland. Hon. G. S. Pearson and Hon. F. M. MacPherson represented the Government here.

Rain Brings Lull—Light rains at many points yesterday eased the forest fire tension in most provincial forest areas. At last report, 351 outbreaks had been recorded, mostly in small spot fires. This compared with 361 fires at the corresponding date last year. Rivers and streams in the North were reported high from melting snows, but no actual flood danger was anticipated.

Children Take Part in Play Given at Tea

The Senior Woman's Branches of Christ Church Cathedral held their fete yesterday afternoon in the Memorial Hall, instead of at Bishop's Close, due to the wet weather. Despite the change made in the plans, a large crowd attended and a satisfactory collection was taken to be divided between the branches, which include the Evening Branch, Afternoon Branch and Business Woman's Branch.

Mrs. M. W. Mackenzie, president of the Afternoon Branch, was the general convener and assisting her in receiving the guests were Dean and Mrs. Quainton, and Rev. E. O. and Mrs. Robathan.

A special feature of the afternoon was the delightful performance by pupils of St. Margaret's School of "The Button Princess," a three-act play, which was greatly appreciated by the guests.

The gymnasium was transformed into a charming tearoom, the tables being artistically arranged with purple and gold tea napkins and centred with vases of violas and sprigs of broom. At the far end of the room were arranged the many stalls, the most noticeable being the table of cut flowers which featured colonial bouquets. Fancywork, candy, home cooking and novelties were temptingly arranged.

Each branch was in charge of a stall and the tea arrangements, with Miss D. Mott as tea convener. On the general committee, besides the convener, were Miss M. Lawson, vice-president of the Evening Branch, and Mrs. C. W. Brooks, president of the Business Woman's Branch.

Wedding Is Celebrated At Duncan

DUNCAN, June 16.—A pretty wedding took place this evening at the home of the bride's parents when Ada Abigail, elder daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Burkholder, Bismarck, became the bride of Mr. James Clarence Gregory, elder son of Mr. and Mrs. G. Gregory, Duncan. Rev. W. F. Burns performed the ceremony under an arch of roses and arjings.

Miss Burkholder, who was given away by her father, was lovely in her wedding gown of form-fitting white satin, made floor length with a small train, long sleeves with tight cuffs finished with tiny satin buttons. Her veil of silk net was caught with orange blossoms, and she carried an arm-bouquet of Ophelia rosebuds, white carnations and fern.

Miss Mabel Burkholder, the bride's sister, was bridesmaid, looking pretty in a long dress of flowered cream taffeta worn with a coatlet with short puff sleeves. She wore a half coronet of pink rosebuds and carried a bouquet of pink rosebuds and fern. Little Dawn Aldersey, in a frock of crisp pink organdie with a pink hat and small Colonial bouquet, made a dainty train bearer. The groom's brother, Mr. Melvin Gregory, acted as best man. Mr. P. R. Dobson played the wedding march, and during the signing of the register, Miss Owen Owens sang "I Love You Truly."

THE RECEPTION

At the reception following the ceremony, the bride's mother, wearing a most becoming dress of floral crepe with a corsage bouquet of roses, was assisted in receiving the guests by Mrs. J. H. Gregory, Victoria, whose frock was a smart dotted crepe with a small coatlet. A buffet supper was served from a table covered with a beautiful lace cloth. Centring the table was the three-tier wedding cake flanked by pale pink candles in silver holders and silver vases of roses and carnations. The toast to the bride was proposed by Rev. W. F. Burns.

Golf Party Is Enjoyed At Oak Bay

Despite the wet afternoon, the "twilight golf" competition and supper party held at the Victoria Golf Club last evening was an outstanding success, the innovation being so much enjoyed that the club is planning others during the summer months.

After the competition, the players and a number of other members who did not take part in the matches, met at the club house, where a buffet supper was served in the dining-room. The long refreshment table was attractively arranged with bowls of delphiniums, foxgloves and roses. Mr. E. D. Todd kindly loaned his radio for the occasion and dancing was enjoyed informally until late in the evening.

Social and Personal

Hostesses Last Night

Mrs. J. H. Barker and Miss Kathleen Barker entertained last evening at their home on Pike Lake at a shower for Miss Amelia Brydon and Mr. Walter Mobey, whose marriage will take place on June 30. The many gifts for a miscellaneous shower were presented to the bride-to-be in a large hat box which had been beautifully decorated to represent a birthday cake, iced with crinkly white crepe paper and ornamented on top with rosettes made of pink and silver paper. Candles, the greeting, "Happy Shower," and the usual paper frills completed this effective bridal motif. The groom-elect's gifts for a pantry shower were gaily wrapped and given to him in a clothes basket. A color scheme of pink and white and silver was used throughout the decorations and the rooms were gay with summer blooms. Court whist and other games were enjoyed and later in the evening a sit-down supper was served at long tables with fragrant centerpiece composed of clove pinks and pale pink sweet peas in silver holders. Those present were Mr. and Mrs. R. Brydon, Mr. and Mrs. C. Hersey, Mr. and Mrs. W. Barker, Mr. and Mrs. T. Scafe, Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Barker, Mr. and Mrs. C. Bowers, Mr. J. Kelley, Mr. and Mrs. T. WESTBOUND SHIP
On her way to Far East ports, the American Mail Line S. S. President Grant, Captain Clyde F. Bryant, U.S.N.R., commander, will be here for two hours Saturday afternoon. The Grant is due alongside Rithet Piers at 4 o'clock and scheduled to sail for Yokohama at 6 o'clock. The liner is taking on a large list of passengers, principally tourists.

FROM SAN FRANCISCO
Kenneth C. Vigus, traveling representative of the famous Palace Hotel, San Francisco, is a visitor in the city yesterday, accompanied by Mrs. Vigus, and together they will drive to Nanaimo today, from where they will cross to Vancouver. The Japanese are anticipating a large attendance at the 1940 Olympic Games in Tokyo, and are said to be preparing their people for what are termed by the newspapers "strange Occidental customs." For one thing, they are giving professional men and women skaters of "good character" permission to skate together.

FRENCH TANKER
The new 30,000-ton oil tanker Emile Miguet, one of the largest ships of its kind in the world, was launched at Dunkirk recently. Perhaps the Queen Mary's principal claim to fame is that she is the only ship in the world so far to make the trans-Pacific crossing in less than four days. Captain J. Williamson, who commanded M. Pacific Commerce out of Vancouver for ten years under time charter to Canadian Transport Company, Ltd., was here today to load for the Antipodes.

A survey of the recorded depths of loaded ships clearing from Vancouver for foreign ports shows that though the Empress liners of the Canadian Pacific S. S. Ltd., are the largest vessels, the Blue Funnel carriers draw the most water.

Ss. Talthybius, of that line, sailed with 12,756 tons weight of freight, drawing 30.7 feet forward and 31.3 feet aft. Ss. Ixion sailed with a draught of 30.6 feet forward and 32 feet aft.

R.M.S. Empress of Japan, largest vessel on the Pacific, recently drew 29.11 feet forward and 30.3 feet aft. Ms. Hiye Maru, of the Nippon Yusen Kaisha, drew 31.6 feet forward and 32.3 feet aft.

Oil tankers clear with the oddest draughts, one sailing recently with 2.8 forward and 12.3 aft. Last week Ms. Albertville cleared for Prince Rupert with 26.4 feet forward and 19.5 aft. In such cases the keel is evened with water ballast once the vessel gets to sea.

PRICES FOR FISH FIXED

All Varieties of Salmon
Worth More to Fishermen
This Year

VANCOUVER, June 16 (P).—Complete schedule of prices to be paid by cannery operators for all varieties of salmon caught in British Columbia coast waters this season was announced today. Gillnet prices, last to be announced, complete the schedule, which shows a 10 per cent increase on coho prices and about 5 per cent increase on other varieties, compared with last year.

An innovation this season is payment on a "per pound" basis for gillnet sockeye caught in the area from Millbank Sound to Cape Caution in District No. 2. The price is 7 1/2 cents a pound.

This will eliminate the former differential between Smiths Inlet and Rivers Inlet sockeye, which amounted to five cents a pound on the piece basis.

ON PIECE BASIS
Price for sockeye in the Skeena and Nass River areas remains on a piece basis, at 47 1/2 cents a fish—2 1/2 cents more than in 1936.

The complete schedule of prices for fish taken with sockeye gillnets follows:

Area from Millbank Sound to Cape Caution in District No. 2—Sockeye, 7 1/2 cents a pound in the round; coho and steelhead, 25 cents a fish; pink, 3 1/2 cents a fish.

Skeena and Nass Rivers—Sockeye, 47 1/2 cents a fish; coho and steelhead, 25 cents a fish; pink, 3 1/2 cents a fish.

Barkley Sound, West Coast of Vancouver Island—Sockeye, 47 1/2 cents a fish; steelhead, 17 1/2 cents a fish.

Prices for seine-caught sockeye taken on the West Coast of Vancouver Island:

Barkley Sound and Tofo Inlet—47 1/2 cents a fish.

DELIVERED WEIGHTS
Other West Coast waters—Delivered weights, 6 1/2 cents a pound in the round, 7 1/2 cents a pound dressed, heads on.

Prices for seine-caught sockeye taken between Cape Caution and Cape Caution—To July 11, 37 1/2 cents a fish; after July 11, 47 1/2 cents a fish.

Seine-caught sockeye in the Skeena and Lower Inlet area—47 1/2 cents a fish. In the Butedale, Klentu, Namu, Bella Coola and Kinsquit areas—37 1/2 cents a fish.

Prices for other seine-caught varieties were announced earlier. Prices for chums, red springs, jack springs and white springs are the same for gillnet and seine, and apply in all areas. They are: red springs, over twelve pounds, 52 cents a fish; chums, jack springs and white springs, 5 1/2 cents a fish.

FASTER SERVICE STARTS JUNE 28

Tourists Will Have Longer Time in Victoria During Summer Schedule of Princess Boats

Faster service on the triangle run will go into effect Monday, June 28, with the new summer schedule of the Canadian Pacific's speedy turbines, Princess Marguerite and Princess Kathleen.

On that date and until September 7, the schedule will be: Princess Marguerite leaves Vancouver, 10:30 a.m. daily; arrive Victoria, 2:40 p.m., leave Victoria 5 p.m., arrive Seattle 9 p.m. Princess Kathleen, leave Seattle 9 a.m., arrive Victoria 12:50 p.m.; leave Victoria, 1:45 p.m., arrive Vancouver 5:55 p.m.

Arrival in Vancouver at 5:55 p.m. gives ample time for connections with the Canadian Pacific's leading eastbound trans-continental trains from Vancouver, the Mountaineer, for the Rockies and Chicago, at 6:35; No. 4, for Toronto and Montreal, coach-tourist train, at 7:15 p.m.; No. 8, all sleeping car train for Montreal, 7:35 p.m., and the Kettle Valley train out at 8:15 p.m. The schedule, faster in running time on the Vancouver-Victoria and Victoria-Seattle legs of the run, provides more time for sightseeing in Victoria.

NATIVE MUSIC FORMS BASIS OF "GYPSIES"

Music plays a dominant part in "Gypsies," the new Soviet film which comes to the Columbia Theatre Monday next, in keeping with its importance in the life of this nomad people. Just as music forms an undercurrent in the day-to-day happenings in a gypsy camp, so here it unites the various episodes of the film.

Lala Chernaya, exotic star of the Moscow Gypsy Theatre, plays the leading feminine role. Alexander Granach, formerly of the Reinhardt Theatre, Berlin, plays the gypsy chief.

SYLVIA SIDNEY ON OAK BAY SCREEN

Co-Starred With Henry Fonda in Drama of Devotion, "You Only Live Once"

The saga of a woman who battled a whole nation by the side of the man she loved is depicted in a series of sharp, telling strokes in "You Only Live Once," which stars Sylvia Sidney and Henry Fonda, and begins a three-day engagement at the Oak Bay Theatre.

Fritz Lang, the brilliant Viennese director who guided Miss Sidney through her historic paces in "Purge," again handles the megaphone on this production, which is depicted as a stark, human drama, which promises to startle local audiences with its realism and thrill them with its beautiful love story.

COLUMBIA OFFERS "RANGER COURAGE"

Covered Wagon Days Live Again With Bob Allen as Two-Gun Hero of Western Drama

The dangerous days of the covered wagon live again in Bob Allen's "Ranger Courage," starting today at the Columbia Theatre. Bullet by bullet the pioneers blaze a trail to the West.

Thrill with excitement as Bob and his wonder horse Pal guard the trail for the pioneers of the prairie ... while redskins and renegades attack in the dark of night! Thrill with joy as blazin' Bob defies a barrage of death to save the gold-laden wagon train and brings them safely to their destination!

Lovely Martha Tibbets appears as a pioneer girl with little "Buzzy" Henry and Walter Miller in support.

In the supporting cast are Reginald Owen, Una O'Connor, Henrietta Croeman, E. E. Clive and other notables.

DETECTIVE YARN AT PLAZA TODAY

"Counterfeit Lady" Has Ralph Bellamy and Joan Perry Cast in Leading Roles

Stealing a rare diamond and yet not being a thief, is the paradoxical situation in which Joan Perry, co-starred with Ralph Bellamy, finds herself in Columbia's "Counterfeit Lady," opening today at the Plaza Theatre.

Bellamy plays the role of a private detective set on the trail of Miss Perry. From the moment Joan gets her fingers on the jewel, there promises to be dramatic and exciting complications.

Included in the supporting cast are Douglas Dumbrille, George McKay, Gene Morgan, Henry Morrison, John Tyrell and John Piccoli.

PARADES TO BE FEATURE

Valuable Prizes Offered for Entries by Junior Chamber Of Commerce

An ambitious programme has been arranged in connection with the August parades, to be held in conjunction with the Jubilee celebrations, by the Victoria Junior Chamber of Commerce.

The day parade has been divided into nine sections, with substantial prizes offered for outstanding entries. A feature will be the decorated floats (non-competitive) division, which is made possible by the co-operation of the large mercantile and manufacturing companies of this city. These will be seen in Section 1.

Floats portraying events in the history of the British Empire will be seen in Section 2. A group of three persons must accompany each entry. Three prizes, totaling $275, are to be awarded in this section.

National floats have been assigned to Section 3, and will portray the life customs, scenery, or tableaux of the country represented. Three persons must accompany each entry. Prizes in this section total $250.

SERVICE CLUB FLOATS

Service club floats will be seen in Section 4. The committee suggests entries should be descriptive of the aims and objects of the organization entering. Three prizes total $250.

Commercial and industrial floats must be decorative, though they may be working models of machinery or some mechanical device.

They must convey the idea of the business represented, and have been assigned Section 5. There are four prizes totaling $275.

Fraternal organizations in Section 6 must enter floats descriptive of the organization represented. Prizes total $250.

Winners in Section 7, comic and novel horse-drawn or automotive vehicles, will be awarded three prizes, totaling $90.

Decorated autos of Section 8 may be decked with natural or artificial flowers, but no entry will be allowed to compete unless it is really decorative in the opinion of the committee. There are five prizes, totaling $105.

PRE-WAR VEHICLES

Section 9 may be the most interesting in the parade and will be composed of pre-war vehicles. All entered must have been in use prior to 1914. The drivers should costume themselves in the period represented and the time when the vehicles were in common use should be made known by a placard. Three prizes total $30.

Floats appearing in the day parade will be eligible for the night parade if they can be illuminated.

Some novel floats have already been promised, according to a statement made yesterday by T. Bird, chairman of the day parade sub-committee.

DON'T SCRATCH, SOOTHE THE IRRITATION

Quick relief from the maddening itch of eczema, psoriasis, poison ivy, and irritation about the rectum or personal parts is obtained by applying an ointment called Resinol. Leave it on over night. It lessens the desire to scratch, and eases the irritation.

The soothing effect of Resinol takes the sting out of the irritated parts and makes you comfortable. The skin heals sooner, too, with the help of Resinol.

The only base of Resinol Ointment is ideal for penetrating the outer layers of the skin and securing deeper action. Bathing the affected parts first with Resinol Soap hastens the effectiveness of Resinol Ointment. Many nurses suggest and use Resinol—why don't you try it?

Buy Resinol Ointment and Soap in any drug store. For free sample, write to Resinol, Dept. 4, Baltimore, Md.

It has everything—including PRICE APPEAL

• Here's exciting news for motorists! A tire that has mileage possibilities beyond any tire at or near its price—due to its new, modern tread.

The "R-1" is a lower-priced companion tire to the celebrated "G-3" All-Weather tread, in fact it costs you less than any standard tire.

This is no motorist's dream. It is a Goodyear reality. Today, this sensational new tire is ready for you. Ask for it as the "R-1". It needs no fancy name. The plain honest facts will convince you that here is a "bargain" in mileage.

The "R-1" has a thick—wide—heavy—modern tread. The diamonds are large—riding ribs wide—grooves narrow. The sides of the tread share the load as well as the centre. The greater rubber contact with the road distributes the weight more evenly, giving longer life to the whole tire. The wider tread affords more grip. There are more sharp edges for quicker starts—faster stops—with safety. This new tread provides longer wear—smooth, quiet riding—easier steering—better service—true tire economy! It is tomorrow's tire built for today—modern—smart—rugged and handsome in appearance.

The "R-1" has the proven Goodyear diamond non-skid design with its four-way facing diamonds, providing FOUR-WAY traction. It has Goodyear's exclusive Supertwist cord construction with two cord breaker strips under the tread to cushion road shocks and prevent blowouts.

The "R-1" is a different tire—ready for the most eager car—the hardest road. It is as far ahead of ordinary tires as the Goodyear "G-3" is in its price class.

Drive in and look at this modern, popular-priced tire today. Your Goodyear dealer has it. Invest in this new tire marvel now and save money on this summer's motoring.

JACK PAYNE LANDS THIRTY-POUND FISH

Jack Payne, well-known soccer player and cricketer and generally conceded to be the ace angler in the Foul Bay district, landed a thirty-pound red spring salmon off Trial Island recently. For many seasons Payne has started things moving with Foul Bay fishermen by bringing in the first large fish of the season.

"Joe doesn't like to train any better than any other fighter," he explained. "He's in fine shape and he's been inclined to take things easy."

"You just watch Joe. See what he does when one of the boys smacks him and makes him mad. All he needs is somebody to push him around a little. We expect Mr. Braddock to do that."

Louis certainly looks in top shape physically. There is no sign of fat rolls around the midriff. His most glaring weakness is that he has failed to develop a defence against right-hand smashes such as Max Schmeling beat him with last Summer.

In virtually all of his drills to date, Joe has been easy to tag with rights.

CHAMPION RESTS

GRAND BEACH, Mich., June 16 (AP).—Down to 190 pounds, with three hard boxing drills coming up during the next four days, heavyweight champion James B. Braddock took an afternoon off today from his conditioning campaign for the Joe Louis fifteen-rounder at Comiskey Park in Chicago next Tuesday night.

Braddock went on the road for five miles during the morning and came in to a hearty breakfast. After that came a session with the scores of newspapermen in camp.

The titleholder made no secret of the fact that he believes his strong right-hand punch will affect Louis in the same way as did that of Max Schmeling.

Manager Joe Gould claims the champion is fully "100 per cent better" than the night he won the title from Max Baer in 1935.

Baer Clowns as Foord Hits Canvas

Max Baer gives one of his typical guffaws, as he gazes at the fallen Ben Foord, South African heavyweight, during their ten-round bout at Harringay Stadium in London, England. Foord took a long count, but got to his feet and finished the contest, losing the decision to the Californian. It was Max's first victory of his current British invasion.

Jack Blackburn States Louis Is Not Slipping

Trainer of Colored Heavyweight Voices Dissenting Opinion Regarding Challenger for Title—Meets Braddock on Tuesday

KENOSHA, Wis., June 16 (AP).—On the current question of whether Joe Louis is slipping, Trainer Jack Blackburn wishes to offer a dissenting opinion.

"He isn't slipping," old Jack told newspapermen today, "and that isn't all. He's a better fighter right now than he was last year and the year before."

"He's getting smarter. Watch and see how he makes those sparring partners fight his fight. He wasn't doing that a year ago. He was going in there, swinging with both hands and overpowering the other fellow. You'll see a better boxing Louis against Jim Braddock next week."

Like almost everyone else, Blackburn concedes the Brown Bomber hasn't shown any too much of the old ring in his preparations for next Tuesday's title shot in Chicago.

IN FINE SHAPE

"Joe doesn't like to train any better than any other fighter," he explained. "He's in fine shape and he's been inclined to take things easy."

"You just watch Joe. See what he does when one of the boys smacks him and makes him mad. All he needs is somebody to push him around a little. We expect Mr. Braddock to do that."

MRS. McILRAITH AND MRS. ENKE TRIUMPH IN FEATURE MATCHES

Former Eliminates Tournament Medal Winner, Mrs. Art Dowell, and Latter Puts Out Miss Dorothy Fletcher in City Golf Championship—Champion Reaches Semi-Finals

NTD the gallery went the tournament medalist, Mrs. Art Dowell, Colwood Club champion, and last year's runner-up, Miss Dorothy Fletcher, young Uplands Club member, as play continued in the women's city golf championship, yesterday morning, at the Colwood course. The qualifying round winner was ushered to the side lines by Mrs. James McIlraith, who is a standard bearer for both Ardmore and Uplands Clubs in this tournament, via a 3 and 2 score, while Miss Fletcher was eliminated by Mrs. Stephen Enke, Gorge Vale Club, who, as Miss Peggy Allen, was runner-up to Mrs. J. Hutchinson in the British Columbia championship three years ago. Mrs. Enke closed out her argument with the Uplands shotmaker at the sixteenth green, 3 and 2.

Still marching triumphantly down the championship trail was the defending titleholder, Miss Mary Mackenzie-Grieve, Uplands Club, by her 6 and 5 decision over Mrs. H. G. Mackenzie, Colwood Club. Accompanying the champion into the semi-finals was Miss Phyllis Hodgson, who had the tough task of eliminating her sister, Miss Peggy Hodgson, by a 3 and 2 margin. This quartette of club swingers will tee off this afternoon in the semi-finals, with Mrs. McIlraith facing Miss Phyllis Hodgson and Miss Mackenzie-Grieve taking on Mrs. Enke.

COARSE RAIN SOAKED

The field teed off yesterday morning in a heavy downpour. They played their matches sheltered under the big golf umbrellas. They found the putting surfaces heavy and therefore three-putting was frequent and very excusable for all concerned.

Miss Fletcher's putter was her downfall during her match with Mrs. Enke. Times without number she reached the greens in the regulation strokes but her putter, which behaved so well the day before when she carded an outgoing nine of 37, let her down.

Mrs. Enke played good steady golf under anything but golfing conditions, jumped at every opportunity staring her in the face to end the match on the sixteenth. Miss Fletcher won the first hole with a five, lost the next two to a four and a five and then won back the fourth to square the battle. Mrs. Enke parred the long fifth for a win, halved the next two and then took the ninth when Miss Fletcher's putter failed her once more, to be two up at the turn.

On the back stretch, Mrs. Enke started off by winning the tenth to be three up. Fours halved the eleventh and then Miss Fletcher reduced her opponent's lead by capturing the 414-yard twelfth with a par five. The next was halved and then Miss Fletcher played the fourteenth poorly to put Mrs. Enke three up again. Halves on the next two holes ended the match.

CHAMPION ADVANCES

Taking the lead at the second hole by sinking a twenty-footer for a par four, Miss Mackenzie-Grieve proved to have too many golf shots in her system for her opponent, Mrs. Mackenzie. The defending champion won the third with a five to go two up, halved the short fourth, and then took the fifth with a par five to increase her lead. Mrs. Mackenzie had a fine chance to win back a hole at the seventh after reaching the green with her tee shot, but three-putted for a half in four.

Miss Mackenzie-Grieve proceeded to widen her lead by winning the eighth and ninth to be five up at the halfway distance. Mrs. Mackenzie won back the tenth but stymied herself at the eleventh to give the titleholder the hole and go five down again. After halving the next hole, Miss Mackenzie-Grieve won the thirteenth with a five to end the match. Mrs. Mackenzie went into the lake in front of the green with her second and ended up with a losing seven.

BATTLE OF SISTERS

Faulty approaching proved the downfall of Miss Peggy Hodgson in her match against her sister. On several occasions, Peggy overshot the greens to lose strokes in her battle. Her spoon shots, too, were not up to the mark, according to the information gathered from her caddy. On the other hand, her sister was consistently steady, being out in 42 to be three up at the turn. She won the second, seventh and ninth holes for her lead—on the opening nine. The winner increased her margin at the eleventh with a par three, but lost the next hole to be still three up. She went four up at the fourteenth, lost the fifteenth and then halved the next hole to end the match.

The steady shotmaking of Mrs. Enke.

Entry List for Daily Colonist Event Extended

Bike Riders Given Until This Evening to File Entries for Fifteenth Annual Race Which Takes Place Tomorrow Evening—Complete Prize List Announced by Officials

Entries for The Daily Colonist fifteenth annual bicycle race, to-morrow night, are coming in fast. Originally the officials set last night as the zero hour for receiving the names of prospective riders, but in an effort to make the entry list even more imposing and to accommodate out of town riders, who have not had the opportunity to register with the officials, it has been decided to extend the time until 6 o'clock tonight. By then, however, it is essential that every entry be in. Forms are available at The Colonist office or from any cycle dealer in the city.

The riders will again receive the benefit of police protection, for the city, Saanich and provincial departments have again offered their co-operation. In the work of keeping the eight and a-half mile course clear they will be aided by members of the Victoria Motorcycle Club. This co-operation has proved an inestimable boon in the past. For the safety of the riders it is necessary to keep the course clear and to control the thousands of spectators who mill around the finishing line.

Inspector J. H. Boulton, who is in charge of the traffic control, issues an appeal to the public to assist the officers in their work. One way in which the help of residents along the course is asked is in the control of dogs. Dog owners are asked to keep their pets tied or indoors during the progress of the race. It will be easily seen that a yapping dog racing down the course might be the cause of a spill, or at least damage the chances of some individual rider. Another point where the co-operation of all is asked is in the parking of cars. No cars may be parked on Quadra, south from Finlayson Street, during the race. This is the point where the riders buckle down to their final burst of speed and any congestion means that the rider in the rear is bottled up, even if he has the speed.

TROPHY AT STAKE

Many handsome prizes are at stake, the major one being The Colonist Cup, valued at $150 and going to the rider making the fastest time around the course, regardless of class. The Francis Cup goes to the rider in class "A" or "B" clipping the greatest margin from last year's time. The Victoria Cycle Club Cup is awarded for the similar feat to the rider in class "C," "D" or "E."

The complete line-up of prizes for the first, second and third prize winners in each of the five classes is given as follows:

Class "A" (riders over the age of sixteen, using racing bicycles)—First, a gold medal, presented by The Canada Cycle Motor Company; second, a silver cup, presented by The Hudson's Bay Company, and third, a silver cup, presented by Plimley & Ritchie, Ltd.

Class "B" (riders over the age of sixteen, using bicycles with tires not less than 11-4 inches)—First, a silver cup presented by The Dunlop Tire Co., second, a silver medal, presented by The B.S.A. Cycle Company, and third, a bronze medal, presented by The B.S.A. Cycle Company.

Class "C" (riders under the age of sixteen)—First, silver cup, from the Allsport Agencies; second, a silver cup from Peden Bros., and third, a silver cup from J. Aaronson.

Class "D" (riders under the age of fourteen)—First, a silver cup from The Dunlop Tire Company; second, a silver cup from Robinson's, and

Braddock's Title Will Not Be Won Or Lost on Foul

CHICAGO, June 16 (AP).—The world's heavyweight championship fight between James J. Braddock, the titleholder, and Joe Louis at Comiskey Park next Tuesday will not be won or lost on a foul.

This was decided today when the Illinois State Athletic Commission determined regulations under which the contest will be fought.

Waiving of the foul rule was the most important development. If either boxer is fouled, he will be given sufficient rest in order to continue.

third, a silver cup from Peden Bros. Class "E" (riders under thirteen)—First, a silver cup from B. J. Smith; second, a silver cup from Harris Cycle Shop, and third, a silver cup from Plimley & Ritchie, Ltd.

The race is scheduled to start at 7:30 p.m. and officials reiterate the necessity for punctuality on the part of the riders. Chief Thomas Heatley will again act as starter. Class "A" getting away at the stroke of the half hour and Classes "B," "C," "D" and "E" following at two-minute intervals.

Racing Fans in Riot

Irate Toronto racing fans, to the number of 200, upset the racing card at Thorncliffe Park, Toronto, when they swooped out on to the track and prevented the running of any races for almost two hours, in protest against the re-running of the day's second race. Due to a poor start of the second race, track officials declared a false start and ordered the race re-run. In the second running of the race, Lassies Mary, which failed to leave the post in the first running of the race, finished many lengths in front of the other horses. Racing fans immediately swarmed to the mutual stalls, demanding their money back and, being refused, crowded on to the track where they threw stones and sticks at horses and jockeys. Regular police and hastily sworn-in special officers were required to break up the crowd. The above photograph shows (arrow) one of the newly sworn-in officers jumping the rail after one of the fans who had disrupted the day's races.

ASCOT, Berkshire, June 16 (P.).—Sixteen of the turf's best stayers, including the 1936 winner, Quashed, were listed today as probable starters in tomorrow's Gold Cup, premier event of the Ascot race meeting.

Quashed, a filly owned by Lord Stanley, won last year by the shortest of margins from William Woodward's Omaha, who was scratched from this year's race yesterday. The event is over two and a-half miles, making it one of the most exacting races in the calendar.

MRS. M'ILRAITH AND MRS. ENKE TRIUMPH

McIlraith was too much for the qualifying round winner, Mrs. Dowell. Hooked tee shots and some poor accuracy, paved the way for Mrs. Dowell's defeat. Beaching the turn three up, Mrs. McIlraith continued her smart display down the back stretch and was close to par on and off until the match ended on the sixteenth green, a spot where two other quarter-finalists went out of the running.

FAIRPLAY IS TRIUMPHANT IN CUP RACE

Captures The Royal Hunt Cup Event After Sensational Finish

ASCOT, Berkshire, June 16 (P.).—Fairplay, an 18 to 1 chance owned by R. Middlemas, millionaire cigar merchant, responded to the whip in a strong stretch drive today to snatch victory in the Royal Hunt Cup, feature of the second day's racing at Ascot, by a neck from H. G. Blagrave's Couvert.

Drawing an unfavorable outside position at the post, Fairplay, a son of Fairway and Mountain Crag, raced well back over the first half of the seven furlong, 155-yard distance, but three furlongs from home began to move up strongly. Going into the straightaway it looked as if Couvert was the winner but Fairplay got his head in front in the last few strides. J. P. Hornum's Pegasus was third in the field of thirty-three, which included His Majesty's colt Fairley, who finished eleventh.

Favorites or near favorites won most of the events on the day's card. Anthony de Rothschild's Suzerain, at 13 to 8, won the Churchill Stakes, and Major J. S. Courtauld's Solfo, odds-on choice at 8 to 11, took the King Edward VII Stakes.

There was also good money on the Aga Khan's Tahir, 5 to 1 winner of the Chesham Stakes, and Sir John Jarvis' filly, Gainsborough Lass, who won the Coronation Stakes at 4 to 1, although in these races the favorites, His Majesty's colt, Jubilee, at 5 to 2, and Lord Astor's Penicuk, at 15 to 2, both were unplaced.

Malcolm McAlpine's Diplomat won the Farnhill Stakes, paying his backers 7 to 1. The 11 to 8 favorite in this race, Waterbird, was the last of four, while Marshal Field's Foray, backed at 6 to 4, was only third.

Pay Maher, Fairplay's jockey in the Royal Hunt Cup, brought off a double by winning the Beesborough Stakes on H. S. Lester's Game Master, who started at 100 to 6. The day's takings on the totalisator reached $144,029 ($720,145), a new record for any one day.

THE TUTTS ... By Crawford Young

Jane Dixon Says:

HOW MUCH HAPPIER AND BETTER THIS WORLD WOULD BE IF PEOPLE WOULD MIND THEIR OWN BUSINESS!—TODAY WE HAVE THE STORY OF A GIRL WHO WAS INDISCREET.

How much happier and better this world would be if people only would mind their own business, and give others a chance to do likewise! When we have learned not to meddle with other people's affairs, we have learned one of life's most valuable lessons, we have paved the way for firm and abiding friendships, and made ourselves a cornerstone in our community instead of a public menace.

Dear Miss Dixon: Some time ago I employed a young woman in a department store, of which I have charge. She is one of the most energetic and pleasant girls who ever has worked for me. She does her job well, is liked by the trade and by all her co-workers. Since she came into my store I have found out that she had been indiscreet several years ago and, as many girls do in such circumstances, went to another town for a while.

Now she is going with a close relative of the man involved in this unfortunate affair and, to my mind, he is a thoroughly unworthy person. If she is careless with her work, it's when she is expecting to be with this man.

Gossips have seen fit to talk to me about her conduct with the man, but as I never have seen anything out of the way between them, I am at a loss as to what I should do. What worries me is, I fear the talk may injure my business.

Do you think a girl uses good judgment in going with the relative of a man with whom she had a bitter experience, when the man who is attentive to her knows all about her former mistake?—Puzzled Employer.

Answer: So long as the girl attends to her work and conducts herself properly, to the best of your knowledge, you should be fair enough to give her a chance to disprove the gossip or to retrieve herself, if she is being indiscreet.

Explain to her the criticism being made of her conduct with the man, and warn her that because of what has gone before, she must be doubly careful of her behaviour. Small people have long memories for the misfortunes of others.

The relationship between the young man who is her present escort, and the other man, has very little bearing on the matter under discussion. Perhaps her selection of a companion is not so wise, but it may be that her heart is involved; and if the young man is pleased to accept her under the circumstances, that is entirely her business and his. I doubt that anyone would be a pleasure enough to stay away from your store because he or she disapproved the social behaviour of one of your employees; but if a situation actually arises, you should allow her a choice of giving up her job or the young man.

Your first duty is to protect the property of which you have charge.

How It Started

By JEAN NEWTON

MACABER
Macaber, also spelled Macabre, frequently encountered in the

"I have started a raw food diet." "So you have had the gas cut off as well as us?"

phrase, Macabre Dance, is a corruption of St. Macarius.

Macabre means weirdly horrible, supernaturally gruesome or forbidding. They are connotations come by honestly.

St. Macarius is the name bestowed by thirteenth century lore upon an Egyptian recluse.

Renouncing the world out of religious motives, St. Macarius secluded himself completely, becoming, according to the then current tales, an anchorite.

As so frequently happens under such circumstances, all manner of stories grew up about this legendary hermit.

The most sombre of them all and that to which the word, in large part, owes its significance connected him with the Dance of Death.

CHAPTER XVI

Holding a match to her cigarette, he said, "One of the strangest cases I ever ran into is that you and Thelma are twin sisters and yet as completely unlike as two people can be. You got all the good, Joanna. You're going to New York to go to work. What's Thelma doing to help out?"

"Nothing. She thinks my plans are a disgrace, and I think it's fun to work. Besides, she doesn't want to get very far away from David." Looking down, she said, low, "We're alike in one respect, Neil. We—we stay faithful. Thelma to David, I to you. My being in love with you and staying in love with you embarrasses you, doesn't it? I've tried to be well—a good pal and not bring that up."

He put his hand over hers. "I think you're swell. It does embarrass me. It makes me feel small and unworthy. But we've gone in to that a good many times, haven't we?"

She nodded. "And I know all the answers. In the first place, you don't love me, and in the second, you say you'll never marry. I didn't mean to get serious, Neil. Let's talk about something else."

Thinking of Eden, he asked, "What would happen to Thelma if David married Eden Carver?"

She opened her eyes wide. "I don't know, Neil! But I think it would nearly kill her! She's jealous now, horribly jealous. But she insists he won't marry a girl he'll be ashamed of. I saw Eden Carver and I don't think any one could be ashamed of her. You don't think."

"I do. But not soon." After he went back, after Eden knew he never meant to see her again, and David filled every free moment of her life, a stout white envelope would reach him in Venezuela. He saw himself beneath a blistering sun opening that envelope, seeing her name and David's name. . . . The one girl he would never forget.

Eden was coming in from lunch when he saw Neil and Joanna walking towards her, and they did not look at once because they were looking at each other. There was no way to avoid them.

Neil's eyes seemed to look through her as she passed them, pulled her mouth into a smile, and said, "Hello," and went on, not daring to look back, but wanting to . . . just to see him again. Neil and Thelma! As she changed from her street clothes into her white uniform, her hands shook. When had that begun—Neil and Thelma? Since David had been calling her Eden. But perhaps she had been mistaken in thinking that Thelma cared for David. Perhaps it had been Neil all the time. . . . Touching her flushed face with her hand, she thought, "Dee is going to marry Charles Larimore. She's kidding herself into believing she's happy. Brad is so broken he can't work. Vicky is coming to live with us. David is in love with me, and now, today, I see Neil and Thelma together. . . ."

Outside the hotel, Neil said, "I'm going to see some friends I haven't seen since I've been back, Joanna. Seeing Eden coming toward him had shaken him. Eden . . ."

"And I'm going home," Joanna said, smiling, "and walk around the house with a book on my head. That's supposed to make you walk gracefully. It bores Thelma terribly. She just stays home and waits for David to telephone her, and he hasn't called her in weeks. She's getting desperate, and when she gets desperate, you never know what she'll do next." She laid her hand on his brown sleeve. "Call me soon, and thanks for my lunch." She smiled. "You and I, Neil, are probably the only case on record where a man and a girl really understand each other."

He grinned. "I still think you're swell, and don't let Thelma keep you from taking that job."

"We're broke. Someday had to do something." And in the end she believed, in spite of Eden Carver, that Thelma would marry David, and that sometime within the next three years Neil would be lonely and send for her.

COULD NOT LIFT ARMS ABOVE HEAD

Owing to Painful Rheumatism

This woman suffered from rheumatism in her back, arms and legs. For two months she endured this painful condition, and like many another sufferer, she decided to try Kruschen Salts. Read her letter:

"About eighteen months ago I had rheumatism in my arms, back and legs. The pain in my arms and legs after getting warm in bed were almost unbearable. I was like that for two months, and could not reach above my head. I read so much about Kruschen Salts that I decided I would try them. I am so glad to say that for more than a year I have not had the slightest return of my rheumatism." (Mrs. H. E.)

The pains and stiffness of rheumatism are frequently due to deposits of uric acid in the muscles and joints. Kruschen Salts assist in stimulating the internal organs to healthy regular activity, and help them to get rid of this excess uric acid. (Adv.)

What Today Means

"GEMINI"

If June 17 is your birthday, the best hours for you on this date are from 9 to 11 a.m., from 2 to 4 p.m. and from 8 to 10 p.m. The danger periods are from 7 to 9 a.m., from 6 to 8 p.m. and from 10 p.m. until midnight.

Force yourself to act in a good-humored fashion this day if you would avoid a great deal of unpleasantness. Grouchy dispositions will attract trouble. Right will prevail, revealing any erroneous attempts to create injuriously wrong impressions, or the attachment of blame where it does not belong. Money-making proclivities are likely to abound and bear favorable results. This should be a most auspicious day for those who depend on their own creative work as a means of livelihood, particularly for those engaged in artistic and literary work. A warm reception is almost sure to be accorded those who make social calls this day, and hosts will be gratified by the appreciation accorded their hospitality. Married and engaged couples, as well as suitors, must refrain from complaining on this day, for any form of grumbling will be very irritating.

If a woman and June 17 is your birthday, you are probably a book-lover and very artistic. Anything relating to the past is apt to interest you to an unusual degree. You have, most likely, an exceptionally agreeable disposition, are fond of social activities and know how to make yourself delightfully entertaining. While you may not ever have a great amount of wealth, it would seem your financial situation will become very satisfactory, providing an income exceeding your needs. You should take interest in some form of church or social welfare work, for you have much that you can give to both. You, perhaps are qualified to teach, paint, play some musical instrument, write or engage in some line of selling. Your married life should be a very happy one, as you ought to be capable of establishing a cheerful home.
